WHY TRAVEL WITH US

BOOK WITH TOTAL CONFIDENCE

Our Peace of Mind Booking Plan allows you to book with confidence in the new international travel environment. With low deposits, a cooling off period and a flexibility period where you can cancel and rebook later, we really do have you covered.

PERSONALISE YOUR HOLIDAY

At Entire Travel Group we understand travellers have their own personal tastes and interests. Throughout our Holiday Packages look for "Freedom of Choice" which give you the ability to tailor your holiday from the experiences available on particular days.

UNRIVALLED TRAVEL EXPERIENCES

In collaboration with our selected suppliers, our meticulously crafted packages guarantee unmatched holiday experiences. Let us take the effort out of planning – explore our offerings by destination, experience, or travel style to discover your ideal getaway. We cater to all preferences, interests, and budgets.

ACCREDITED & AWARD WINNING

Entire Travel Group is both ATAS and CATO Accredited. ATAS is actively administered by the Australian Travel Industry Association (ATIA). The Council of Australian Tour Operators (CATO) is the trade association representing the land supply sector of the Australian Travel Industry.

FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED

Proudly Australian family-owned and operated, Entire Travel Group has a rich history since its establishment in 1971 with CIT Holidays and 1991 with French Travel Connection. Our commitment extends to supporting the community through various charity organisations.

SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL

Sustainable travel, also called eco-friendly or responsible travel, involves minimising environmental impacts, supporting local communities, and promoting cultural awareness. It aims to preserve nature, biodiversity, and reduce carbon emissions.

FRIENDLY TEAM

Passion and experience distinguish Entire Travel Group. Our team lives and breathes travel, with a simple goal: to simplify your holiday choices. We're dedicated to making this a reality through our friendly, knowledgeable team, ensuring your holiday surpasses expectations.

HANDPICKED SUPPLIERS

We value our strong bonds with local suppliers chosen for their reliability, expertise, and track record. Regular partner meetings ensure a quality experience, with their skills being crucial to crafting our holiday packages. With shared values and passion, we aim to provide you the finest holiday experience.

TRAVEL SUPPORT

Our Holiday Packages feature on-ground support from trusted suppliers to ensure a smooth travel experience. Unforeseen factors like flight delays, weather events, or strikes can disrupt plans. Our chosen partners offer reliable, professional assistance within the destination to address any issues.

OUR TRAVEL EXPERIENCES

Across all of our destinations, we have carefully categorised our product range into Experiences. Whether it may be culture, gastronomy, luxury, wellbeing or a combination you're after - Entire Travel Group can create the perfect holiday itinerary for you.

FRENCH POLYNESIA

IA ORANA, WELCOME...

Verdant mountains rising up from turquoise coral fringed lagoons, French chic and a touch of luxury all contribute to making The Islands of Tahiti irresistible. What we often simply refer to as Tahiti is actually five archipelagos known as French Polynesia, officially still part of France. Tahiti is the largest of the Society Islands, which also includes the gorgeous islands of Moorea and Bora Bora. The iconic beauty of The Islands of Tahiti is well known. Coral reefs, abundant with marine life, protect impossibly blue shallow lagoons - perfect places for swimming, watersports or simply admiring from an idyllic stretch of beach. Make a dream come true and find yourself in an overwater bungalow, waking up in luxury and diving into warm turquoise waters straight from your own deck.

The Islands of Tahiti offer a unique and memorable experience - Enjoy!

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Islands of Tahiti are a place where beauty goes far beyond the postcard-perfect lagoons and luxurious resorts. Yes, the fifty shades of blue are real, and the beaches are breathtaking—but what truly sets French Polynesia apart is its soul. You feel the Mana—the life force that flows through the land, the ocean, and its people.

French Polynesia is a collection of 118 islands and atolls scattered across the South Pacific, renowned for its turquoise lagoons, lush volcanic peaks, and vibrant Polynesian culture.

From the bustling markets of Papeete to the untouched serenity of the Marquesas, each island offers a unique experience—whether you're seeking romance, adventure, or relaxation.

The islands are grouped into five archipelagos, with the Society Islands (home to Tahiti, Moorea, and Bora Bora) being the most visited. Beyond these, the Tuamotu and Marquesas islands offer remote luxury and cultural depth, perfect for travellers looking to go further.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Wake up in an overwater bungalow, where glass floors reveal vibrant marine life right beneath your feet.
- Swim in fifty shades of blue in Bora Bora's legendary lagoon, framed by Mount Otemanu.
- Feel the Mana, the spiritual energy that connects land, sea, and people across the islands.
- Wander through vanilla-scented valleys in Taha'a, known as the Vanilla Island.
- Dive into the underwater wonders of Rangiroa, home to dolphins, manta rays, and drift dives.
- Escape to pink-sand beaches and untouched coral atolls in Tikehau.
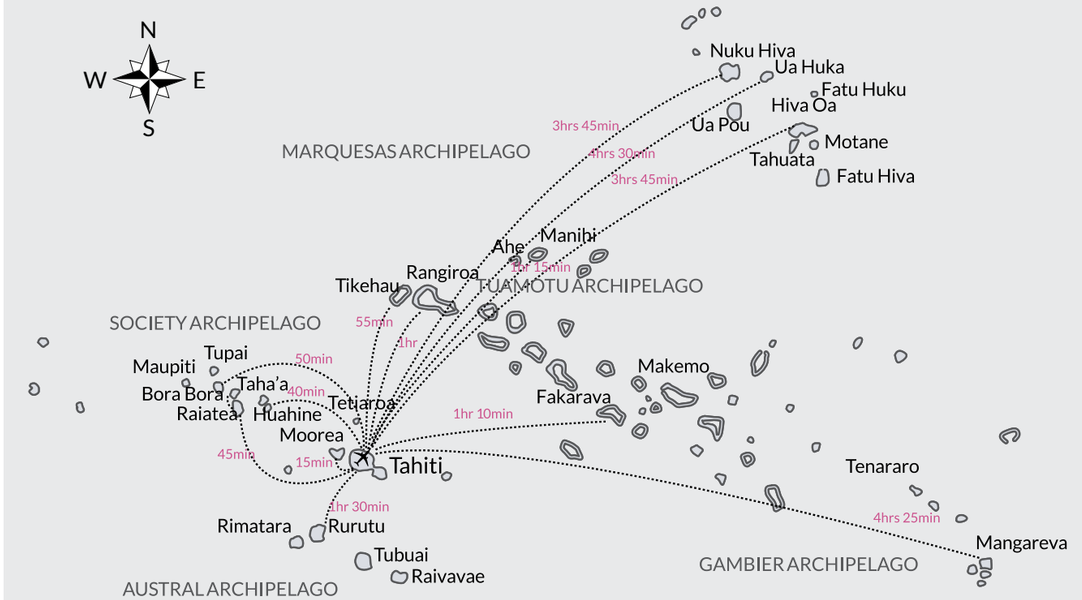
- Explore the wild beauty of the Marquesas, where ancient culture meets dramatic volcanic peaks.
- Sail across turquoise lagoons on a traditional outrigger canoe, stopping at secluded motus.
- Indulge in barefoot luxury, where five-star service meets authentic Polynesian warmth.
- Savour fresh poisson cru, the islands' signature dish, with your toes in the sand and a sunset view.



TAHITI

© Intercontinental Tahiti Resort & Spa

WHY WE LOVE IT

Tahiti is more than just the starting point—it's the soulful gateway to your French Polynesian adventure. With its dramatic volcanic peaks, black-sand beaches, and vibrant local culture, Tahiti offers the perfect introduction to island life. Whether you're arriving for a pre-stay before heading to the outer islands or winding down after your journey, Tahiti invites you to connect with the spirit of the islands. Here, you'll feel the Mana—the life force that flows through its people, landscapes, and traditions. It's a place to immerse yourself in authentic Polynesian culture, indulge in local flavours, and reflect on the beauty of the journey.

Tahiti is the vibrant soul of French Polynesia. As the largest island and home to the capital city, Papeete, it blends natural beauty with urban energy. Visitors can explore lush rainforests, cascading waterfalls, and dramatic volcanic peaks, then return to chic waterfront restaurants and lively markets. Tahiti's black-sand beaches and cultural richness make it more than just a stopover—it's a destination in its own right.

Whether you're diving into the island's history at the Museum of Tahiti, hiking to the Fautaua Waterfall, or enjoying a sunset cocktail overlooking the lagoon, Tahiti offers a dynamic mix of adventure and relaxation.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Why not combine a stay on a high volcanic island (such as Tahiti Moorea or Bora Bora) with a few nights on a low lying atoll (such as Rangiroa or Tikehau)?
- Island hopping is easy with an Air Tahiti airpass. If you're looking for untouched beaches and stunning lagoons, head to Huahine or Taha'a. For amazing snorkelling and diving experiences head to the Tuamotu Archipelago.
- Tahiti does not have to be expensive! There is a great range of accommodation styles to suit all budgets. From locally owned guesthouses and charming boutique hotels to world-renowned luxury resorts, there's something for everyone.
- For a truly cultural and "off the beaten track" experience, visit the majestic Marquesas Archipelago. It is also the resting place of Paul Gauguin.

MOOREA

© Hilton Moorea Lagoon Resort & Spa

WHY WE LOVE IT

Just a short ferry ride from Tahiti, Moorea feels like a world away—lush, laid-back, and impossibly beautiful. With its dramatic mountain peaks, crystal-clear lagoons, and vibrant coral reefs, Moorea is a paradise for nature lovers and adventure seekers alike. But it's not just the scenery that captivates; it's the island's relaxed charm, friendly locals, and authentic Polynesian spirit. Whether you're hiking through rainforest trails, snorkelling with rays, or simply soaking in the views from your beachfront bungalow, Moorea invites you to slow down and connect—with nature, with culture, and with yourself.

Just a 30-minute ferry ride or a scenic 7-minute flight from Tahiti, Moorea feels like a world away. Its jagged green peaks rise dramatically from the sea, encircling tranquil bays and crystal-clear lagoons. The island is a haven for nature lovers, with hiking trails through lush valleys, snorkelling among vibrant coral gardens, and dolphin-watching tours in the open ocean. Moorea's charm lies in its laid-back atmosphere and romantic appeal. It's a favourite for honeymooners, but also perfect for families and solo travellers seeking serenity. The island's small villages and local artisans add a warm, authentic touch to every visit.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Instead of flying, consider taking the ferry between Tahiti and Moorea — the short journey is not only more affordable but also rewards you with breathtaking views of the islands and their surrounding lagoons.
- Make sure to visit Belvedere Point in Moorea, where you can admire sweeping panoramic views of Cook's Bay, Oponohu Bay, and the lush mountain peaks that frame the island so beautifully.
- Moorea is famous for its pineapples, so be sure to sample the locally grown fruit, often considered among the sweetest in the world, and visit a plantation to see how they are cultivated.
- For a truly memorable experience, book a lagoon excursion where you can snorkel in crystal-clear waters and swim alongside reef sharks and friendly rays in their natural environment.

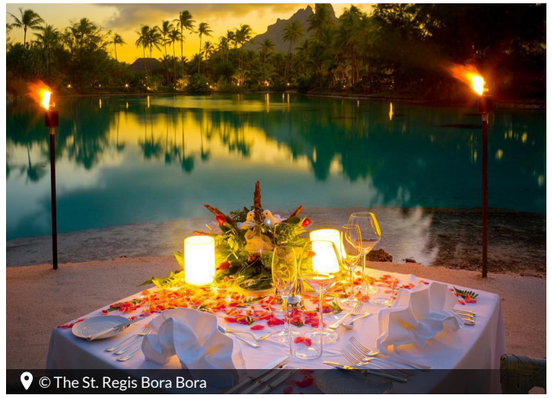
WHY WE LOVE IT

Bora Bora is the epitome of a tropical paradise, with its world-famous lagoon shimmering in endless shades of blue and the majestic Mount Otemanu standing proudly at its heart. Known as the "Romance Island," it offers the perfect blend of natural beauty and luxury, making it one of the most sought-after destinations for honeymooners and couples from around the world.

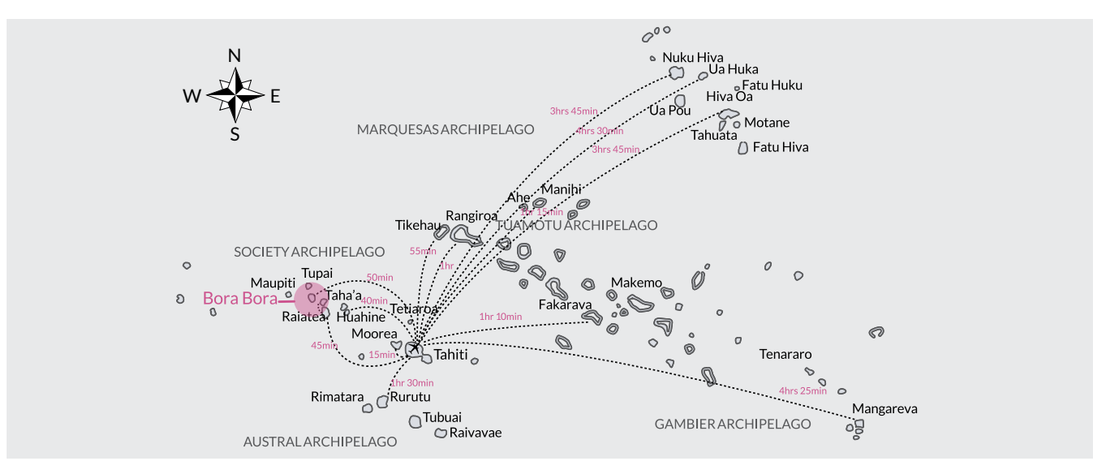
Bora Bora – the Jewel of the Pacific. Famed for its crystal-clear lagoon and the dramatic peak of Mount Otemanu, Bora Bora is the ultimate South Pacific escape. This iconic island is a dream destination for honeymooners and luxury seekers alike, offering world-class resorts, overwater bungalows, and unforgettable lagoon experiences. Whether it's snorkelling with rays, enjoying a private beach dinner, or simply soaking in the views from your villa, Bora Bora delivers romance, relaxation, and once-in-a-lifetime moments in every direction.



© The St. Regis Bora Bora

© Le Bora Bora by Pearl Resort

© Conrad Bora Bora Nui



TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Your first view of Bora Bora's famous lagoon is from the plane, so try to book a window seat — the aerial view of Mount Otemanu surrounded by dazzling shades of blue is unforgettable.
- Most resorts in Bora Bora are located on private motus, so boat transfers are required; make sure to arrange these in advance through your accommodation for a smooth arrival.
- For the ultimate romantic experience, stay in an overwater bungalow where you can step straight into the lagoon, enjoy breakfast delivered by canoe, and watch the sun set over Mount Otemanu.
- Don't miss a lagoon excursion — swimming with reef sharks and rays, snorkelling in vibrant coral gardens, and exploring hidden motus are some of the highlights of any stay.

OTHER ISLANDS

© Le Taha'a by Pearl Resorts

WHY WE LOVE IT

French Polynesia's untouched beaches, mighty reefs, lush mountains and impossibly blue lagoons make it the perfect tropical island paradise. With a wide array of beautiful resorts, deluxe accommodation and endless water and land activities, trust us to give you an unforgettable holiday getaway tailored to your needs and wants. Be it laidback beach retreats, dream luxury holidays, or mind-blowing experiences, you can count on us to make your stay in French Polynesia a truly memorable one.

Untouched Beauty & Authentic Encounters. Beyond the iconic trio of Tahiti, Moorea, and Bora Bora lies a collection of remote islands that offer a deeper, more intimate connection to French Polynesia. These lesser-visited gems—Taha'a, Tetiaroa, Tikehau, Rangiroa, and Nuku Hiva—are where nature takes centre stage and cultural traditions remain strong.

- Taha'a, known as the "Vanilla Island," is fragrant with plantations and surrounded by coral gardens ideal for snorkelling.
- Tetiaroa, once Marlon Brando's private retreat, is now home to one of the world's most exclusive eco-resorts.
- Tikehau charms with its pink-sand beaches, abundant marine life, and laid-back pace.
- Rangiroa, one of the largest atolls on Earth, is a diver's paradise with world-renowned drift dives and dolphin encounters.
- Nuku Hiva, in the remote Marquesas, offers dramatic volcanic landscapes and a rich tapestry of Polynesian heritage.

These islands are perfect for travellers seeking privacy, raw natural beauty, and a more meaningful island experience—each one a hidden treasure waiting to be explored.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Pack light, but bring reef shoes – Many of these islands have coral beaches or shallow lagoons perfect for snorkelling, and reef shoes will make exploring more comfortable.
- Plan for inter-island flights – These remote islands are often accessed via small aircraft with limited schedules, so allow flexibility in your itinerary and pack accordingly.
- Embrace the unplugged experience – Wi-Fi can be limited or slower on outer islands, making it the perfect excuse to disconnect and truly unwind.
- Don't skip the cultural encounters – Whether it's a vanilla plantation tour in Taha'a or a guided hike in Nuku Hiva, these islands offer rich, authentic experiences you won't find elsewhere.

THE BRANDO – ULTIMATE LUXURY

Located on Marlon Brando's private atoll of Tetiaroa, The Brando is the pinnacle of eco-luxury in French Polynesia. Accessible only by private plane, this all-inclusive resort offers unmatched privacy, sustainability, and indulgence. With just 35 villas, each with a private plunge pool and direct beach access, guests enjoy world-class dining, a Polynesian spa, and immersive cultural and nature experiences in a pristine setting.

KALE AH MARUHABAA, WELCOME...

Barefoot Luxury in the Indian Ocean. Scattered like jewels across the Indian Ocean, the Maldives is a collection of over 1,000 coral islands grouped into 26 atolls, each offering its own slice of paradise. With powdery white-sand beaches, crystal-clear lagoons, and vibrant coral reefs, it's a destination made for relaxation, romance, and world-class diving. Whether you're staying in an overwater villa, dining under the stars, or swimming alongside manta rays, the Maldives delivers a truly unforgettable island escape. With seaplane transfers, private island resorts, and warm tropical hospitality, it's the ultimate barefoot luxury experience.

MALDIVES

© Centara Hotels & Resorts

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Maldives is the kind of place that feels almost too perfect to be real. We love it for its postcard-worthy beauty—think overwater villas, endless turquoise lagoons, and sunsets that stop you in your tracks. But it's more than just looks. Whether you're snorkelling with manta rays, enjoying a private sandbank picnic, or simply unwinding in a hammock with your toes in the sand, the Maldives delivers pure escapism. It's the ultimate destination for romance, relaxation, and once-in-a-lifetime moments.

The Maldives is a destination that feels like a dream. Scattered across the Indian Ocean, this collection of over 1,000 coral islands is famed for its powdery white-sand beaches, crystal-clear lagoons, and luxurious overwater villas. Whether you're arriving by speedboat or seaplane, the journey alone sets the tone for something truly special.

Each resort in the Maldives is set on its own private island, offering a level of seclusion and serenity that's hard to match. From romantic hideaways to family-friendly retreats, the Maldives caters to every kind of traveller. Days are spent snorkelling vibrant reefs, indulging in spa treatments, or simply soaking up the sun with your feet in the sand.

Beneath the surface, the Maldives is a marine wonderland. Its warm, shallow waters are home to manta rays, reef sharks, sea turtles, and technicolour coral gardens. Whether you're a seasoned diver or a first-time snorkeller, the underwater world here is nothing short of spectacular.

What makes the Maldives truly unforgettable is the way it blends natural beauty with world-class hospitality. Expect intuitive service, exceptional dining, and thoughtful touches that elevate every moment. It's a place where time slows down, and every detail is designed to help you unwind.

Whether you're celebrating a honeymoon, planning a milestone trip, or simply craving a luxurious escape, the Maldives delivers an experience that's as effortless as it is extraordinary.

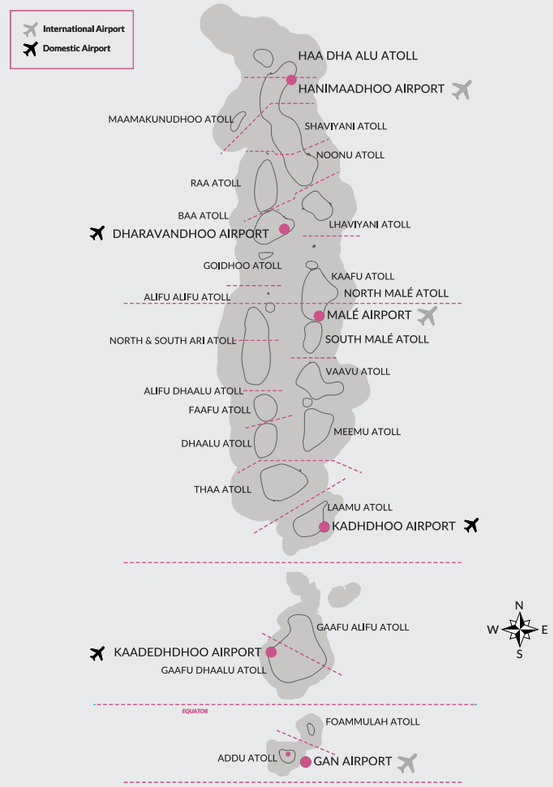
- Enjoy year-round sunshine and a relaxed, tropical pace of life.
- Choose from romantic hideaways to family-friendly resorts with kids' clubs.



NORTH MALÉ ATOLL

© Centara Ras Fushi Resort & Spa

WHY WE LOVE IT

North Malé Atoll is where the Maldives magic begins. We love how easy it is to reach—just a short speedboat ride from the airport—and yet it feels like a world away. The mix of vibrant marine life, world-class surf breaks, and postcard-perfect beaches makes it a favourite for both first-timers and seasoned travellers. Whether you're diving into coral gardens, catching a wave, or sipping cocktails at sunset, North Malé offers the perfect blend of adventure and relaxation, all wrapped in effortless island charm.

North Malé Atoll is the most visited of the Maldives' 26 atolls and the perfect starting point for a tropical escape. Home to the nation's capital, Malé, it's just a short speedboat or traditional dhoni ride from Velana International Airport, making it one of the most accessible regions in the country. With turquoise lagoons, swaying palms, and a relaxed island atmosphere, it offers the ideal balance of convenience and natural beauty.

This atoll is renowned for its soft white-sand beaches, vibrant coral reefs, and excellent dive sites. From shallow lagoons teeming with marine life to deeper wreck dives for the more adventurous, it's a paradise for snorkellers and divers alike. Expect to encounter colourful fish, sea turtles, and graceful rays just beneath the surface.

North Malé also offers a wide range of resorts, hotels, and dining options—catering to everyone from first-time visitors to seasoned Maldives travellers. Whether you're after barefoot luxury, family-friendly fun, or a romantic retreat, there's something here for every style of holiday.

Surfing is another highlight, with reef breaks like Pasta Point and Lohis drawing wave seekers between April and August. Beyond the surf and snorkelling, guests can enjoy spa treatments, sunset cruises, and private island picnics. Whether you're chasing adventure, relaxation, or romance, North Malé Atoll brings together everything that makes the Maldives unforgettable.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Pack light, but don't forget reef shoes and a rashie for snorkelling.
- Book your seaplane or speedboat transfers early—they're part of the adventure!
- Many resorts are cashless, so bring a credit card and leave the wallet in the safe.
- Sun protection is essential—reef-safe sunscreen is a must.
- Embrace the slow pace—this is the place to truly switch off.
- Try a local Maldivian curry or seafood BBQ for a taste of island life.
- Don't miss a sunset cruise or stargazing session—they're unforgettable.

SOUTH MALÉ ATOLL

© Ozen Reserve Bolifushi

WHY WE LOVE IT

South Malé Atoll is the perfect mix of convenience and classic Maldivian beauty. We love how quickly you can get from the airport to your resort—often in under an hour—without sacrificing that remote island feel. The diving and snorkelling here are incredible, with colourful reefs and marine life just off the beach. There's also a great variety of resorts, from romantic retreats to family-friendly escapes. Whether you're chasing waves, sunsets, or total relaxation, South Malé makes it all easy to reach and hard to leave.

South Malé Atoll is one of the Maldives' most popular regions, located just south of the capital and easily reached via a short speedboat transfer from Velana International Airport. Its close proximity makes it an excellent choice for travellers wanting to immerse themselves in island life quickly, while still enjoying the same turquoise lagoons and white-sand beaches that make the Maldives world-famous.

The atoll is renowned for its exceptional dive sites, including dramatic channels, colourful coral gardens, and thriving marine life such as reef sharks, manta rays, and sea turtles. Snorkelling is equally rewarding, with many resorts offering direct access to vibrant house reefs just steps from the beach. With a wide selection of luxury resorts and boutique properties, South Malé Atoll caters to honeymooners, families, and adventure seekers alike.

For water sports lovers, the atoll offers everything from kayaking and paddleboarding to surfing—particularly around the eastern reefs, where consistent waves attract surfers between May and October. After a day of activity, guests can unwind with sunset cruises, private sandbank picnics, or world-class spa treatments overlooking the lagoon.

Combining convenience with natural beauty, South Malé Atoll delivers the perfect blend of adventure and relaxation—just minutes from the international gateway to the Maldives.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Speedboat transfers are quick and scenic, so have your camera ready as you glide past turquoise lagoons and palm-fringed islands.
- Pack reef shoes and snorkelling gear if you have your own—many resorts have excellent house reefs just off the beach.
- South Malé is great for short stays, thanks to its proximity to the airport—perfect for minimising travel time and maximising relaxation.
- Try a local island excursion if your resort offers it—visiting a nearby village gives you a glimpse into everyday Maldivian life.
- Surf season runs from May to October, with reef breaks like Riptides drawing surfers from around the world.
- Book spa treatments early, especially sunset sessions—they're popular and often sell out quickly.
- Don't miss a sandbank picnic or sunset cruise—they're simple, stunning experiences that make your stay even more memorable.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Don't forget your underwater camera—this atoll is one of the best places in the Maldives for spotting whale sharks and manta rays.
- Seaplane transfers are part of the experience, so grab a window seat and enjoy the view.
- Many resorts offer marine biology talks or guided snorkelling, which are great for learning more about the reef and its residents.
- Pack light, but bring reef-safe sunscreen and a rashie—you'll be in the water a lot.
- South Ari is ideal for longer stays, especially if you want to dive or explore multiple snorkelling sites.
- Try a sunset dolphin cruise or sandbank dinner—they're simple but unforgettable.
- Wi-Fi can be patchy on some islands, so download books, playlists, or movies before you arrive—and embrace the digital detox.

OTHER ATOLLS

© COMO Maalifushi

WHY WE LOVE IT

These atolls offer a quieter, more intimate side of the Maldives. We love the sense of space, the focus on sustainability, and the opportunity to experience the islands in a more meaningful way. Whether you're after romance, wellness, or adventure, these destinations deliver unforgettable moments in truly spectacular settings.

Beyond the well-known regions of North and South Malé and South Ari, the Maldives is home to a collection of lesser-visited atolls that offer a more secluded, immersive island experience. These atolls are perfect for travellers seeking privacy, sustainability, and a deeper connection to nature—without compromising on luxury.

From the manta-filled waters of Baa Atoll to the untouched serenity of Thaa and Dhaalu, each atoll has its own personality. Whether you're snorkelling with whale sharks, enjoying a jungle spa ritual, or dining under the stars on a private beach, these islands offer something truly special.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Seaplane transfers are common and operate only during daylight hours, so plan arrivals and departures accordingly. Pack light and enjoy the scenic journey.
- Visit Baa Atoll between June and November for the best chance to see manta rays in Hanifaru Bay.
- Many resorts here focus on wellness and sustainability, so expect yoga, spa rituals, and eco-conscious design.
- Dining is a highlight, with underwater restaurants, jungle picnics, and destination dining experiences.
- Wi-Fi may be slower on remote islands, so download your books and playlists in advance.
- Ask about marine biologist-led snorkelling or conservation tours—they're often included.

COOK ISLANDS

KIA ORANA – WELCOME....

Kia Orana! In the Cook Islands, this greeting means more than just "hello"—it's a heartfelt wish for long life and good health. The islands are known for their warm hospitality, stunning natural beauty, and relaxed pace of life. Whether you're exploring the vibrant culture of Rarotonga or drifting across the turquoise lagoon of Aitutaki, the Cook Islands invite you to slow down, connect with nature, and experience the true spirit of the South Pacific. With no crowds, no stress, and no rush, it's a place where every moment feels like a gift.

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Cook Islands have a way of making you feel instantly at home. We love the warm, welcoming locals, the laid-back lifestyle, and the sense of space and simplicity that's hard to find elsewhere. It's a place where you can snorkel in crystal-clear lagoons in the morning, browse local markets in the afternoon, and enjoy a beachfront barbecue at sunset. With no crowds, no chain hotels, and no stress, the Cook Islands offer a truly authentic island escape that's as relaxing as it is unforgettable.

Nestled in the heart of the South Pacific, the Cook Islands offer a warm, welcoming escape filled with natural beauty and rich Polynesian culture. With 15 islands scattered across a vast ocean expanse, the destination is best known for its two main gems—Rarotonga, the vibrant hub, and Aitutaki, often called one of the most beautiful lagoons in the world.

Rarotonga is a lush, mountainous island encircled by a turquoise lagoon and a coral reef, perfect for snorkelling, paddleboarding, and cycling around the coast. Its lively markets, beachside cafés, and friendly locals make it a great base for exploring island life. Just a short flight away, Aitutaki offers a slower pace, with powdery white-sand beaches, crystal-clear waters, and unforgettable lagoon cruises.

The Cook Islands are ideal for travellers seeking a relaxed, uncrowded holiday with a strong sense of community and culture. Whether you're enjoying a traditional island night, hiking through rainforest trails, or simply unwinding in a beachfront bungalow, the islands offer a perfect blend of adventure and serenity.

With no chain hotels and a focus on locally owned accommodation, the Cook Islands deliver an authentic experience that feels both personal and untouched. It's a destination where time slows down, and every moment is savoured.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Direct flights from Australia and New Zealand to Rarotonga
- Stunning lagoon cruises in Aitutaki, often called the world's most beautiful
- Excellent snorkelling and diving with vibrant coral reefs
- Locally owned resorts and boutique accommodation
- Rich Polynesian culture with traditional dance, music, and cuisine
- Easy to explore—Rarotonga can be circled in under an hour
- Warm, welcoming locals and a laid-back island lifestyle

RAROTONGA

© CookIslandsTourism

WHY WE LOVE IT

Rarotonga has a charm that's hard to put into words. We love how easy it is to explore, how friendly the locals are, and how every beach feels like your own private paradise. It's a place where you can do as much or as little as you like—whether that's hiking to the Needle, snorkelling in the lagoon, or just enjoying a slow morning with a coffee and a view. It's the kind of island that makes you feel instantly at ease.

Rarotonga is the vibrant hub of the Cook Islands—a lush, volcanic island encircled by a turquoise lagoon and fringed with palm-lined beaches. It's where most travellers begin their journey, and it offers the perfect balance of natural beauty, cultural richness, and laid-back island life.

The island is small enough to explore in a day yet packed with experiences. You can snorkel straight off the beach, hike through rainforest trails to panoramic lookouts, or cycle the coastal road past local cafés, markets, and friendly villages. The Saturday Punanga Nui Market is a must-visit, showcasing local crafts, fresh produce, and live music.

Rarotonga is also home to a wide range of accommodation—from boutique beachfront resorts to self-contained villas—making it ideal for couples, families, and solo travellers alike. With no traffic lights, no high-rise buildings, and no rush, it's a place where time slows down and every moment is savoured.

Whether you're enjoying a traditional island night, sipping cocktails at sunset, or simply relaxing in a hammock, Rarotonga offers a warm, welcoming escape that feels both familiar and refreshingly different.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Hire a scooter or e-bike to explore the island at your own pace—it's only 32 km around.
- Snorkel at Muri Lagoon or Aroa Beach, where the water is calm and full of marine life.
- Visit the Punanga Nui Market on Saturday mornings for local food, crafts, and music.
- Try an island night cultural show—it's a fun way to experience Cook Islands dance and cuisine.
- Pack reef shoes and insect repellent for beach walks and inland hikes.
- Book a cross-island hike with a local guide for stunning views and cultural insights.
- Don't miss a sunset cocktail at a beachfront bar—the views are unforgettable.

AITUTAKI

© Turama Pacific Travel Group

WHY WE LOVE IT

Aitutaki is pure magic. We love the calm, clear lagoon, the sense of space and stillness, and the way every moment feels like a postcard come to life. It's the kind of place where you can truly disconnect—from crowds, from schedules, and from stress. Whether you're cruising the lagoon, sipping cocktails at sunset, or simply soaking up the silence, Aitutaki is unforgettable.

Aitutaki is the jewel of the Cook Islands—a breathtakingly beautiful island surrounded by a turquoise lagoon so stunning it's often ranked among the most beautiful in the world. Just a short flight from Rarotonga, this peaceful paradise offers a slower pace, fewer crowds, and a deep sense of serenity.

The lagoon is the star attraction, with its crystal-clear waters, coral reefs, and tiny motu (islets) perfect for exploring by boat, kayak, or paddleboard. Lagoon cruises are a must-do, offering snorkelling, beach picnics, and unforgettable views of the island's natural beauty.

On land, Aitutaki is equally charming. The island is dotted with small villages, friendly locals, and boutique resorts that blend comfort with authenticity. Whether you're relaxing in a beachfront bungalow, enjoying fresh seafood, or watching the sunset from a quiet beach, Aitutaki invites you to slow down and savour every moment.

With its postcard-perfect scenery and warm hospitality, Aitutaki is ideal for honeymooners, couples, and anyone seeking a romantic or restorative escape in the South Pacific.

© Turama Pacific Travel Group

© Turama Pacific Travel Group

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Book a lagoon cruise early—it's the best way to explore the motu and snorkel in the clearest waters.
- Pack reef shoes and sun protection—you'll spend a lot of time in and around the water.
- Don't miss One Foot Island, one of the most photographed spots in the South Pacific. Don't forget to take your passport to receive a unique One Foot Island Stamp at the tiny post office (closed on Sundays)
- Aitutaki is quieter than Rarotonga, so book accommodation and activities in advance.
- Try fresh seafood at a local café or resort restaurant—the flavours are simple and delicious.
- Hire a scooter or bike to explore the island at your own pace. Taxi's are extremely limited so would recommend organizing car hire in advance if you want to explore the island by car
- Sunsets are spectacular, so plan a beach dinner or cocktail hour to enjoy the view.

FIJI

© Nanuku Resort Fiji

WHY WE LOVE IT

Fiji is one of those places that instantly lifts your spirits. We love the genuine hospitality, the postcard-perfect beaches, and the endless opportunities for adventure and relaxation. Whether you're travelling with family, escaping for a romantic getaway, or ticking off a bucket-list dive, Fiji delivers with heart. It's a place where you arrive as a guest and leave feeling like part of the family.

Fiji is made up of over 300 islands scattered across the South Pacific, each offering its own unique blend of natural beauty, culture, and charm. From the main island of Viti Levu to the remote Yasawas and Mamanucas, Fiji is a destination that caters to every kind of traveller—whether you're seeking luxury, adventure, romance, or family fun.

The islands are known for their white-sand beaches, crystal-clear lagoons, and lush rainforests. You can snorkel with reef sharks, hike to hidden waterfalls, or simply relax in a hammock with a coconut in hand. Fiji's coral reefs are among the most vibrant in the world, making it a paradise for divers and snorkellers.

Beyond the scenery, Fiji's rich culture is woven into every experience. From traditional kava ceremonies and village visits to fire dancing and island feasts, you'll find countless ways to connect with the local way of life. Whether you're staying in a five-star resort or a beachfront bure, the warmth of the Fijian people is what makes the experience truly unforgettable.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Over 300 islands to explore, each offering its own unique charm
- Warm, welcoming culture with traditional ceremonies and village visits
- World-class snorkelling and diving in vibrant coral reefs
- Luxury resorts, family-friendly stays, and romantic hideaways
- Adventure activities from white-water rafting to ziplining and shark diving

VITI LEVU

© Intercontinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa

WHY WE LOVE IT

Viti Levu is the perfect starting point for any Fiji holiday. We love the variety—from luxury resorts in Denarau to cultural experiences along the Coral Coast and adventure in Pacific Harbour. It's easy to get around, packed with things to do, and offers a great mix of comfort and authenticity. Whether you're after relaxation, family fun, or adrenaline-fuelled activities, Viti Levu delivers.

Viti Levu is Fiji's largest island and the main hub for international arrivals, with Nadi and Suva serving as key entry points. It's home to a diverse mix of landscapes, from lush highlands and rivers to golden beaches and coral reefs. The island offers a blend of cultural experiences, adventure activities, and resort stays, making it a great starting point for any Fiji holiday.

Denarau Island, just 20 minutes from Nadi Airport, is a purpose-built resort enclave with luxury hotels, golf courses, and a marina that serves as the gateway to the outer islands. It's ideal for travellers seeking convenience and comfort.

Further along, the Coral Coast stretches between Nadi and Suva, offering beachfront resorts, family-friendly activities, and access to traditional villages and cultural sites. It's perfect for those seeking a blend of relaxation and local flavour.

At the southern end of the island, Pacific Harbour is Fiji's adventure capital, known for white-water rafting, shark diving, and rainforest excursions. It's a great choice for thrill-seekers and nature lovers.

MAMANUCA ISLANDS

© Likuliku Lagoon Resort

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Mamanucas are what most people picture when they think of Fiji—white-sand beaches, swaying palms, and crystal-clear lagoons. We love how easy they are to reach and how many resort options there are, from romantic retreats to family favourites. It's the perfect place to unwind, snorkel, and soak up the sun.

Just a short boat ride from Denarau, the Mamanuca Islands are Fiji's most accessible island group—and among its most beautiful. These postcard-perfect islands are known for their white-sand beaches, turquoise lagoons, and relaxed resort atmosphere.

Whether you're snorkelling off the beach, enjoying a sunset cocktail, or simply unwinding in a beachfront bure, the Mamanucas offer a classic island escape. With a wide range of resorts—from romantic adults-only retreats to family-friendly favourites—it's a region that suits every style of traveller.

YASAWA ISLANDS

© Yasawa Island Resort & Spa

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Yasawas offer a more remote and untouched side of Fiji. We love the dramatic landscapes, intimate resorts, and the sense of adventure that comes with getting there. It's perfect for honeymooners, backpackers, and anyone wanting to disconnect and explore nature at its finest.

North of the Mamanucas, the Yasawa Islands offer a more remote and untouched experience. These volcanic islands are dramatic and wild, with towering peaks, hidden beaches, and some of Fiji's clearest waters.

Accessible by ferry, catamaran, or seaplane, the Yasawas are ideal for honeymooners, backpackers, and adventure seekers. Resorts here tend to be smaller and more intimate, with a strong focus on nature, culture, and connection. It's the perfect place to unplug and explore.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Access is by ferry, catamaran, or seaplane, so plan transfers carefully.
- Bring cash, as some smaller resorts may not accept cards.
- Snorkelling and diving are exceptional, especially around Blue Lagoon and Sawa-i-Lau caves.
- Pack reef shoes and sun protection—you'll be in and out of the water often.
- Expect limited Wi-Fi and mobile coverage—embrace the digital detox.
- Smaller resorts offer more personal service, so chat with staff for local tips.

NEW CALEDONIA

© NC Tourisme/Dean Cropp

WHY WE LOVE IT

New Caledonia is the South Pacific with a twist. We love the mix of French and island cultures, the incredible food, and the diversity of experiences—from city sophistication to wild nature. It's a destination that feels familiar yet exotic, and perfect for travellers who want a little luxury with their adventure.

New Caledonia is unlike anywhere else in the Pacific. It's a place where French culture meets Melanesian tradition, where croissants and café au lait are served alongside coconut crab and kava. The capital, Nouméa, offers waterfront dining, boutique shopping, and a vibrant arts scene, while the main island (Grande Terre) is home to dramatic mountain ranges, lush valleys, and the world's largest enclosed lagoon.

Whether you're exploring the UNESCO-listed lagoon by kayak, hiking through tropical forests, or relaxing on a beach with a glass of French wine, New Caledonia offers a refined yet adventurous island experience. It's perfect for couples, food lovers, and travellers looking for something a little different.

The outer islands—including the Isle of Pines and the Loyalty Islands—are known for their pristine beaches, crystal-clear waters, and slower pace of life. While accommodation isn't featured in this brochure, these islands are still highlighted for their natural beauty and are well worth exploring for those seeking true escape.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A unique blend of French sophistication and Pacific island culture
- Home to the world's largest enclosed lagoon, a UNESCO World Heritage site
- Direct flights from Australia
- Cosmopolitan city life in Nouméa with waterfront dining and boutique shopping
- Incredible snorkelling, diving, and lagoon tours across Grande Terre
- Rich Kanak heritage and cultural experiences at the Tjibaou Cultural Centre
- Diverse landscapes from rainforest and mountains to white-sand beaches

NOUMÉA

© DoubleTree by Hilton Nouméa Îlot Maître Resort

WHY WE LOVE IT

Nouméa is where French flair meets island ease. We love the relaxed pace, the waterfront cafés, and the blend of cultures that makes every experience feel unique. Whether you're strolling along Anse Vata, dining on fresh seafood, or hopping over to a nearby islet for the day, Nouméa offers a stylish, sun-soaked escape with just the right touch of sophistication. It's the perfect base for exploring New Caledonia's beauty, with everything close at hand.

Nouméa is the cosmopolitan heart of New Caledonia, offering a unique blend of French sophistication and island charm. Set along the shores of Anse Vata Bay, the city is known for its waterfront promenades, boutique shopping, and vibrant café culture. It's the perfect place to start your New Caledonia journey, with easy access to beaches, cultural attractions, and day trips to nearby islets.

Whether you're dining on fresh seafood, browsing local markets, or exploring the Tjibaou Cultural Centre, Nouméa offers a relaxed yet refined experience. It's ideal for couples, solo travellers, and anyone wanting a taste of France in the South Pacific.

HIGHLIGHTS

- French-inspired dining, shopping, and architecture
- Easy access to Anse Vata and Baie des Citrons beaches
- Day trips to Îlot Canard and Îlot Maître for snorkelling and sunbathing

GRANDE TERRE

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

Grande Terre gives you space to breathe. We love the wide-open landscapes, the sense of freedom on the road, and the chance to connect with both nature and culture. Bourail, in particular, offers a perfect mix of luxury and adventure—ideal for travellers who want to unwind without losing their sense of discovery.

Grande Terre is New Caledonia's main island and a land of contrasts—where rugged mountain ranges meet wide open plains, and lush rainforests give way to golden beaches. It's a destination for travellers who love to explore, offering everything from hiking and diving to cultural encounters and scenic road trips.

On the west coast, Bourail is a standout region known for its relaxed pace, natural beauty, and access to the UNESCO-listed lagoon. It's also home to the Sheraton New Caledonia Deva Spa & Golf Resort, a luxurious retreat set between the ocean and the Deva Domain Nature Reserve. Here, guests can enjoy world-class golf, spa treatments, and outdoor adventures in a peaceful, unspoiled setting.

Whether you're kayaking through mangroves, hiking the Deva trails, or simply relaxing by the beach, Grande Terre offers a deeper, more immersive New Caledonian experience.

© NC Tourisme

HIGHLIGHTS

- Home to the Sheraton Deva Spa & Golf Resort, set between lagoon and forest
- Access to the UNESCO World Heritage-listed lagoon and reef
- Deva Domain Nature Reserve with hiking, biking, and birdwatching
- Scenic beaches like Roche Percée and Poé Beach
- Rich Kanak and colonial heritage in nearby villages
- Great for self-drive holidays and nature-based adventures
- Ideal for couples, families, and active travellers

© NC Tourisme

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Hire a car—Grande Terre is best explored at your own pace
- Visit the Deva Domain for hiking, mountain biking, and panoramic views
- Don't miss Roche Percée and Turtle Bay, two of the west coast's most scenic spots
- Pack for outdoor adventures—think hiking shoes, swimwear, and sun protection
- Stop at local markets and roadside stalls for fresh produce and local treats
- The Sheraton Deva is a destination in itself, perfect for a few days of relaxation and exploration

LOYALTY ISLANDS

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Loyalty Islands feel like a step back in time. We love the raw beauty, the warm hospitality of the local communities, and the chance to experience New Caledonia's cultural heart. It's a destination for those who value simplicity, authenticity, and meaningful travel.

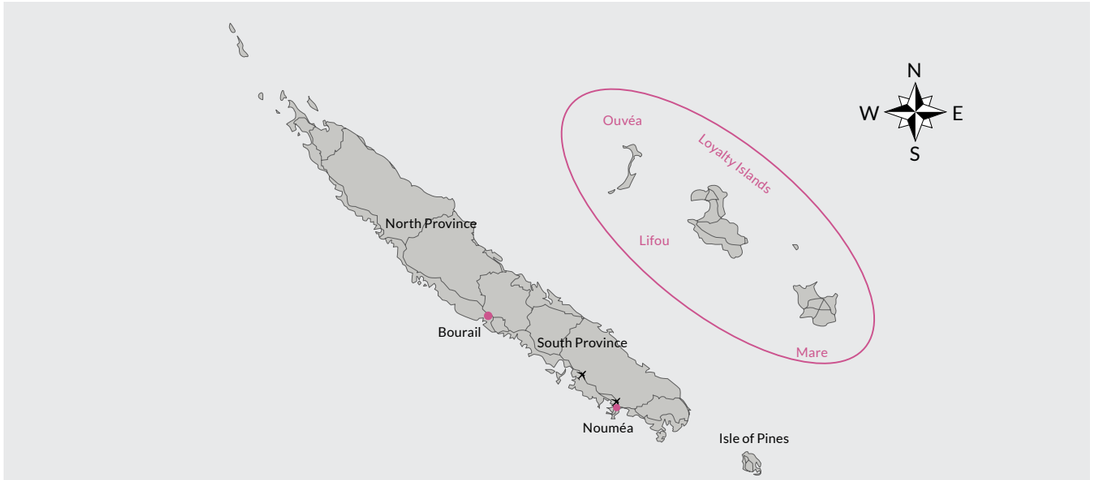
The Loyalty Islands—Ouvéa, Lifou, and Maré—offer a more remote and culturally rich side of New Caledonia. These islands are known for their dramatic coastlines, hidden caves, and pristine beaches, all set against a backdrop of strong Kanak traditions and village life. With fewer visitors and a slower pace, the Loyalty Islands are ideal for travellers seeking a deeper connection to nature and culture.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Three distinct islands: Ouvéa, Lifou, and Maré
- Strong Kanak culture and traditional village life
- Dramatic cliffs, caves, and untouched beaches
- Excellent snorkelling and diving in pristine lagoons
- Ideal for slow travel and cultural immersion

© NC Tourisme

© NC Tourisme



TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Each island has its own personality—Ouvéa for beaches, Lifou for culture, and Maré for nature
- Accommodation is limited, so book early and expect a more rustic experience
- Bring essentials, including cash, reef shoes, and sun protection
- Respect local customs, especially when visiting villages
- Snorkelling is excellent, particularly in Lifou and Ouvéa
- Travel light and slow—these islands are all about connection and calm

ISLE OF PINES

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Isle of Pines is pure postcard perfection. We love the quiet beauty, the soft beaches, and the sense of stillness that comes with being somewhere truly special. It's the kind of place where you can completely switch off and reconnect with nature.

Just a short flight from Nouméa, the Isle of Pines is one of New Caledonia's most iconic destinations. Known for its towering native pines, white-sand beaches, and crystal-clear lagoons, it's a peaceful paradise perfect for couples and nature lovers. Whether you're snorkelling in Oro Bay's natural pool or exploring ancient Melanesian ruins, the island offers a serene and unforgettable escape.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering native pines and white-sand beaches
- Snorkelling in the natural pool at Oro Bay
- Peaceful, boutique resorts with beachfront access
- Rich cultural history and ancient ruins
- Ideal for couples, honeymooners, and nature lovers

© NC Tourisme

© NC Tourisme/ Hitomi Mutou

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Visit Oro Bay's natural pool—it's one of the most photographed spots in New Caledonia
- Bring reef shoes and snorkelling gear—the water is clear and full of marine life
- Try the local lobster, a regional specialty
- Book accommodation and transfers early, especially in peak season
- Pack light and plan to relax—this is slow travel at its best

TALOFA – WELCOME TO SAMOA

Samoa welcomes you with a heartfelt "Talofa" and the timeless beauty of its Polynesian heritage. Just a short flight from New Zealand and Australia, this island paradise offers a rich tapestry of culture, tradition, and natural wonders. From the vibrant markets and coastal charm of Apia to the cascading waterfalls, volcanic landscapes, and serene beaches of Upolu and Savai'i, Samoa invites you to slow down, reconnect, and experience the warmth of its people and the rhythm of island life.

SAMOA

© Samoa Tourism Authority

WHY WE LOVE IT

Samoa is authentic, welcoming, and full of soul. We love the unspoiled landscapes, the strong sense of community, and the chance to experience Polynesian culture in its purest form. It's a destination that invites you to slow down, connect, and explore.

Samoa is a destination where natural beauty and cultural heritage go hand in hand. Located in the heart of Polynesia, this island nation is known for its lush rainforests, cascading waterfalls, and pristine beaches. But what truly sets Samoa apart is its deep-rooted culture—fa'a Samoa—which shapes daily life with warmth, respect, and tradition.

From the vibrant markets of Apia to the dramatic To Sua Ocean Trench and the untouched beaches of Savai'i, Samoa offers a mix of adventure, relaxation, and cultural immersion. Whether you're exploring lava fields, swimming in freshwater pools, or enjoying a traditional fiafia night, Samoa is a place that feels both grounded and magical.

VANUATU

© James Vodicka/Aore Island Resort

WHY WE LOVE IT

Vanuatu is full of contrast and character. We love the mix of adventure and authenticity, the chance to explore active volcanoes one day and snorkel in crystal-clear lagoons the next. It's a destination that's raw, real, and endlessly rewarding.

Vanuatu is a diverse island nation made up of over 80 islands, each offering its own unique blend of adventure, culture, and natural beauty. From the bustling markets of Port Vila to the volcanic landscapes of Tanna and the blue holes of Espiritu Santo, Vanuatu is a destination that surprises and delights at every turn.

Whether you're diving WWII wrecks, hiking to the rim of an active volcano, or relaxing in a beachfront bungalow, Vanuatu offers a rich and varied experience. The local culture is vibrant and welcoming, with strong traditions and a deep connection to the land and sea.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Mount Yasur – one of the world's most accessible active volcanoes
- Blue holes, waterfalls, and jungle hikes in Espiritu Santo
- Cultural villages and kastom ceremonies
- WWII dive sites including the SS President Coolidge
- Port Vila's markets, cafés, and waterfront charm
- Great for adventure seekers, couples, and cultural travellers
- Short flight from Australia with a relaxed island vibe

© James Vodicka/Aore Island Resort

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Visit multiple islands—each offers something different
- Pack for adventure—hiking shoes, swimwear, and insect repellent are essentials
- Try local dishes like lap lap and fresh seafood
- Respect local customs, especially during village visits
- Bring cash for smaller islands, where card facilities may be limited
- Book volcano tours and inter-island flights in advance, especially in peak season
