ITINERARY

Day

1

Whitehorse

From the airport, you will be transferred to your hotel located in the centre of Whitehorse.

Overnight stay in Whitehorse at Sternwheeler Hotel.

Whitehorse

You will start the day with a sightseeing flight above the spectacular summer scenery. During the flight you can enjoy the Yukon from an angle only few people ever will. Back in Whitehorse, you will discover the history of the north on a city-sightseeing tour. Whitehorse has a lot to offer and is home to famous sights like the historic Paddlewheeler SS Klondike or a “Skyscraper” completely made out of logs.

Later, you will visit the Yukon Wildlife Preserve where you can see up close inhabitant game like the Elk, Moose, Caribou, Mountain Goats and Lynx in their natural surrounding. Not far from here you will visit the Eclipse Nordic Hot Springs and indulge yourself in the natural hot waters and relax in a breathtaking mountain setting.

Breakfast

Whitehorse Kluane National Park Whitehorse

After breakfast you drive into the mountains of Kluane National Park, which was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1979. You will visit the scenic Kathleen Lake and enjoy a short hike at the Rock Glacier which bursts a magnificent view across lakes and mountains surrounding Kluane National Park. Visiting the historic indigenous Klukshu Village we will also have the chance to see wild salmon reaching their spawning grounds. In Haines Junction we will visit the Da Ku Cultural Centre to learn more about the rich history of Kluane National Park, which is home to the largest non-polar ice field.

Day 4

Whitehorse

Today you'll learn the old tradition of canoeing. After a detailed safety briefing you'll get introduced to the art of canoeing and soon you'll be on your way on historic waterways. On this tour you canoe down the historic Yukon River and enjoy the peaceful scenery. Paddle from Whitehorse to the confluence of the Takhini River. A great day trip for beginner paddlers and a perfect way to enjoy this classic northern river. Back from the canoe trip you can reward yourself with a beer from the famous Yukon Brewery at one of the downtown restaurants.
