ITINERARY

Day 1

Depart Venice

The Golden Age of travel

Board the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express at Venice Santa Lucia for a lavish three-course lunch in one of our hand restored 1920s restaurant cars. Then spend the afternoon relaxing in the comfort of your suite or cabin, gazing at the beautiful scenery as the continent passes before you.

A selection of pastries will be served to your quarters, before a leisurely four-course dinner; prepared on board by our famed French chefs. Later, enjoy cocktails and free flowing champagne in the Bar Car, listening to the resident pianist play your requests on the baby grand.

After a night of revelry, even the most intrepid traveller must seek a place to slumber. And where better than a private cabin or upgrade to a suite, each lovingly restored to full 1920s grandeur. Lay under crisp sheets and take rest, for tomorrow the journey continues.

- You can never be overdressed on the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express.
For dinner, we ask for formal evening attire and many guests like to don black tie and wear their most glamorous finery for the occasion. Smart daywear is appropriate during the day. At lunch, for example, a jacket/tie or equivalent is suitable. Jeans are not acceptable at any time.
- If a detailed request is made at the time of booking, special dietary needs such as vegetarian or vegan can be accommodated. If a special request has not been made, the chefs will endeavour to prepare a dish with the ingredients available on board. We do, however, regret that we are unable to provide meals requiring strict religious observance in the preparation.
