ITINERARY

Day

1

Porto

Welcome to Porto!

Located in the charming north of Portugal, Porto is not just a capital city, but also a wonderful gateway to explore. It holds the distinction of giving a nation its name and is famous for its internationally acclaimed fortified wine, port.

Embark on an half day private tour of Porto and discover the secrets and charms of the city with a local guide. Explore the central quarters, historical areas, and cobbled streets. Immerse yourself in the music of the gentle language and indulge in delicious food and wine. Visit Baixa, the Cathedral, Rua das Flores, São Bento's train station, Torre de los Clérigos, Lello Irmão bookshop, Café Majestic, and Praça da Batalha.

Overnight stay in Porto at Yeatman Hotel in a superior deluxe room.

Day 2

Porto

Enjoy a buffet breakfast at your hotel.

Join us for a delightful private walking guided tour where we will not only explore the charming streets of Porto, but also indulge in a tasting of various local products, including oils and wines. This journey of discovery will take us from the scenic Ribeira to the vibrant "Baixa", where we will have the opportunity to savour the authentic flavours that define Porto's cuisine.

As we wander along the picturesque Rua das Flores, you will witness the harmonious blend of traditional shops and contemporary establishments, showcasing both exquisite design and local gastronomy. Prepare your taste buds for a delightful experience as we sample different varieties of olive oil, often referred to as the "liquid gold" of Mediterranean cuisine, which is also proudly produced in Portugal.

In addition, we will have the pleasure of trying delicious traditional fish canned preserves, a genuine delicacy from both Spain and Portugal's northern regions. To conclude our culinary adventure, we will indulge in high-quality chocolate, expertly crafted and internationally acclaimed.

While exploring the historic centre, we will make a stop at an intriguing refurbished industrial space housing a design market, where we will have the chance to taste a traditional Portuguese dessert. Our day will culminate with a private wine tasting featuring exceptional wines from nearby small producers, offering a truly exquisite finale that captures the essence of Portuguese culture.

Overnight stay in Porto at Yeatman Hotel in a superior deluxe room.

Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3

Porto Douro Region

After breakfast, a private transfer will take you to the Douro wines region. Traveling along the best viewpoints, you'll cross the river, exploring breathtaking landscapes and visiting vineyards, towns, and villages until reaching Miranda do Douro, where the river enters Portugal.

In Peso da Régua, the Douro Museum provides a different perspective on the region and wine growing. Nearby, on the south bank, is Lamego, one of the most beautiful cities in Northern Portugal, located at the base of an immense blue and white tiled flight of steps leading to the Shrine of Nossa Senhora dos Remédios.

In Pinhão, right by the river, the railway station is a must-see to admire its ancient tiles dedicated to the cultivation of vines.

Before arriving in Pocinho, you can make a detour on the south bank to visit the castle of Numão and enjoy the view over the skyline. A little further to the east is the Vale do Coa Archaeological Park, an open-air rock art gallery classified as a World Heritage Site, and the attached Museum in Vila Nova de Foz Coa.

Upon reaching Barca de Alva, you enter the International Douro Natural Park, where the river becomes the border between Portugal and Spain. The river's course narrows, flowing between tall escarpments until it reaches the small border town upon entering Portugal.

The Douro Wine Region Valley, up to Barca de Alva, stands as the world's oldest demarcated wine region. The river carved deep valleys, and Man transformed schist mountains into terraced slopes, cultivating vines that flourish in summer's green and autumn's flame colors.

Overnight stay in Pinhão at the Vintage House Hotel in a junior suite.

Breakfast

Day 4

Douro Region

After breakfast, enjoy a full-day Douro Valley Wine tour.

Explore the UNESCO World Heritage Douro Valley, a picturesque tapestry of meandering rivers, distinctive vineyards, and charming villages. Immerse yourself in an intimate and expertly curated Douro experience. Discover the wineries, meet the passionate vintners, and unravel the secrets of wine production.

Your day will be filled with visits and tastings at two carefully selected Douro Valley wine estates, known as "Quintas." Enjoy a private guided tour, tastings, a delightful lunch, and the convenience of a dedicated driver at your disposal. It's a rich and engaging experience tailored for your enjoyment.

Overnight stay in Pinhão at the Vintage House Hotel in a junior suite.

Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5

Douro Region Coimbra & Aveiro Lisbon

Depart from Douro and enjoy a transfer aboard a Mercedes minivan. Embark on a full-day private exploration of Coimbra & Aveiro: the essence of the Portuguese Soul, en route to Lisbon.

Coimbra, Portugal's medieval capital and home to the country's greatest university for five centuries, boasts an atmospheric historic center cascading down the Rio Mondego's east bank. Aveiro, known as the Venice of Portugal, captivates with its high-prowed boats, humpbacked bridges, and picturesque canals. Witness an exceptionally preserved medieval settlement evolving into a modern town, showcasing Portuguese architecture from the 15th to 19th century. Explore its rich heritage, savour local gastronomy, and experience a mesmerizing sunset at one of its iconic squares.

Then, continue to Lisbon, a city that makes you want to go exploring, to discover whatever might appear in every neighbourhood, on every street. It's a safe and friendly city, relatively small but with so much to see.

Overnight stay in Lisbon at The One Palacio de Anunciada in a deluxe room.

Breakfast

Day 6

Lisbon

After breakfast, indulge in an half-day private tour of Lisbon.

Lisbon is known for its abundant sunlight, which beautifully reflects off the Tajo River and enhances the city's stunning architecture and allure. The city's captivating essence goes beyond its renowned landmarks and truly immerses visitors in its vibrant streets, engaging all their senses. The sunlit atmosphere, the intricate azulejo tiles, the melodious language, the vibrant colors, and the rich narratives of this ancient yet progressive city are all eagerly unveiled to discerning guests.

In this exclusive tour, the city gracefully unravels its distinct character, preserving the essence of bygone eras. Accompanied by our knowledgeable guides, who possess unparalleled expertise on Lisbon, you will leisurely explore Rossio, one of the city's prominent squares, or meander through Alfama, an enchanting old quarter, discovering the most significant historical sites of this captivating city that will undoubtedly leave an indelible impression. Iconic landmarks such as Praça do Comércio, the picturesque Sé Cathedral, the oldest church in the city, and the majestic medieval fortress of Castelo de São Jorge, offering a panoramic viewpoint, will enchant every visitor. Be enchanted by the legends, history, and undeniable charm of Lisbon, as expertly narrated by our guides.

Experience the enchantment of fado in the heart of old Lisbon's Mouraria district. Hear the echoes of legendary fado singers Maria Severa and Amália Rodrigues in small restaurants and taverns. Join a private walking tour of Mouraria to learn about its history and the birth of fado. Then, enjoy a live fado show with wine and tapas in a local restaurant (Available Wednesday to Saturday).

Overnight stay in Lisbon at The One Palacio de Anunciada in a deluxe room.

Breakfast, Dinner

Day 7

Lisbon Sintra Lisbon

After breakfast, enjoy an half-day private excursion to Sintra and the Pena Palace.

Sintra, 40 minutes from Lisbon, is a UNESCO World Heritage site with unique characteristics. The town and mountains form a cultural landscape with lush vegetation, part of the Sintra-Cascais Natural Park. The palaces, including Pena Palace and Palace of Seteais, are exceptional. Nearby are beautiful beaches, Cabo da Roca, Colares wine region, and the picturesque village of Azenhas do Mar.

In the late afternoon, join us for an incredible experience on our private sailing excursion!
