WHY TRAVEL WITH US

BOOK WITH TOTAL CONFIDENCE

Our Peace of Mind Booking Plan allows you to book with confidence in the new international travel environment. With low deposits, a cooling off period and a flexibility period where you can cancel and rebook later, we really do have you covered.

PERSONALISE YOUR HOLIDAY

At Entire Travel Group we understand travellers have their own personal tastes and interests. Throughout our Holiday Packages look for “Freedom of Choice” which give you the ability to tailor your holiday from the experiences available on particular days.

UNRIVALLED TRAVEL EXPERIENCES

In collaboration with our selected suppliers, our meticulously crafted packages guarantee unmatched holiday experiences. Let us take the effort out of planning – explore our offerings by destination, experience, or travel style to discover your ideal getaway. We cater to all preferences, interests, and budgets.

ACCREDITED & AWARD WINNING

Entire Travel Group is both ATAS and CATO Accredited. ATAS is actively administered by the Australian Travel Industry Association (ATIA). The Council of Australian Tour Operators (CATO) is the trade association representing the land supply sector of the Australian Travel Industry.

FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED

Proudly Australian family-owned and operated, Entire Travel Group has a rich history since its establishment in 1971 with CIT Holidays and 1991 with French Travel Connection. Our commitment extends to supporting the community through various charity organisations.

SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL

Sustainable travel, also called eco-friendly or responsible travel, involves minimising environmental impacts, supporting local communities, and promoting cultural awareness. It aims to preserve nature, biodiversity, and reduce carbon emissions.

FRIENDLY TEAM

Passion and experience distinguish Entire Travel Group. Our team lives and breathes travel, with a simple goal: to simplify your holiday choices. We're dedicated to making this a reality through our friendly, knowledgeable team, ensuring your holiday surpasses expectations.

HANDPICKED SUPPLIERS

We value our strong bonds with local suppliers chosen for their reliability, expertise, and track record. Regular partner meetings ensure a quality experience, with their skills being crucial to crafting our holiday packages. With shared values and passion, we aim to provide you the finest holiday experience.

TRAVEL SUPPORT

Our Holiday Packages feature on-ground support from trusted suppliers to ensure a smooth travel experience. Unforeseen factors like flight delays, weather events, or strikes can disrupt plans. Our chosen partners offer reliable, professional assistance within the destination to address any issues.

OUR TRAVEL EXPERIENCES

Across all of our destinations, we have carefully categorised our product range into Experiences. Whether it may be culture, gastronomy, luxury, wellbeing or a combination you’re after - Entire Travel Group can create the perfect holiday itinerary for you.

OUR HISTORY

Entire Travel Group is the home of iconic travel brands including CIT Holidays, French Travel Connection, Tahiti Travel Connection and many more. Although these brands have been retired, their legacy continues under our specialist teams for Europe, the Islands and Canada.

NEW CALEDONIA

BIENVENUE – WELCOME TO NEW CALEDONIA

New Caledonia greets you with a warm "Bonjour" and a unique blend of French sophistication and Pacific island charm. Located just a few hours from Australia, this South Pacific gem offers a diverse mix of culture, cuisine, and landscapes—from cosmopolitan city life in Nouméa to untouched beaches, lagoons, and rainforests across the main island and beyond.

NEW CALEDONIA

© NC Tourisme/Dean Cropp

WHY WE LOVE IT

New Caledonia is the South Pacific with a twist. We love the mix of French and island cultures, the incredible food, and the diversity of experiences—from city sophistication to wild nature. It's a destination that feels familiar yet exotic, and perfect for travellers who want a little luxury with their adventure.

New Caledonia is unlike anywhere else in the Pacific. It's a place where French culture meets Melanesian tradition, where croissants and café au lait are served alongside coconut crab and kava. The capital, Nouméa, offers waterfront dining, boutique shopping, and a vibrant arts scene, while the main island (Grande Terre) is home to dramatic mountain ranges, lush valleys, and the world's largest enclosed lagoon.

Whether you're exploring the UNESCO-listed lagoon by kayak, hiking through tropical forests, or relaxing on a beach with a glass of French wine, New Caledonia offers a refined yet adventurous island experience. It's perfect for couples, food lovers, and travellers looking for something a little different.

The outer islands—including the Isle of Pines and the Loyalty Islands—are known for their pristine beaches, crystal-clear waters, and slower pace of life. While accommodation isn't featured in this brochure, these islands are still highlighted for their natural beauty and are well worth exploring for those seeking true escape.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A unique blend of French sophistication and Pacific island culture
- Home to the world's largest enclosed lagoon, a UNESCO World Heritage site
- Direct flights from Australia
- Cosmopolitan city life in Nouméa with waterfront dining and boutique shopping
- Incredible snorkelling, diving, and lagoon tours across Grande Terre
- Rich Kanak heritage and cultural experiences at the Tjibaou Cultural Centre
- Diverse landscapes from rainforest and mountains to white-sand beaches

NOUMÉA

© DoubleTree by Hilton Nouméa Îlot Maître Resort

WHY WE LOVE IT

Nouméa is where French flair meets island ease. We love the relaxed pace, the waterfront cafés, and the blend of cultures that makes every experience feel unique. Whether you're strolling along Anse Vata, dining on fresh seafood, or hopping over to a nearby islet for the day, Nouméa offers a stylish, sun-soaked escape with just the right touch of sophistication. It's the perfect base for exploring New Caledonia's beauty, with everything close at hand.

Nouméa is the cosmopolitan heart of New Caledonia, offering a unique blend of French sophistication and island charm. Set along the shores of Anse Vata Bay, the city is known for its waterfront promenades, boutique shopping, and vibrant café culture. It's the perfect place to start your New Caledonia journey, with easy access to beaches, cultural attractions, and day trips to nearby islets.

Whether you're dining on fresh seafood, browsing local markets, or exploring the Tjibaou Cultural Centre, Nouméa offers a relaxed yet refined experience. It's ideal for couples, solo travellers, and anyone wanting a taste of France in the South Pacific.

HIGHLIGHTS

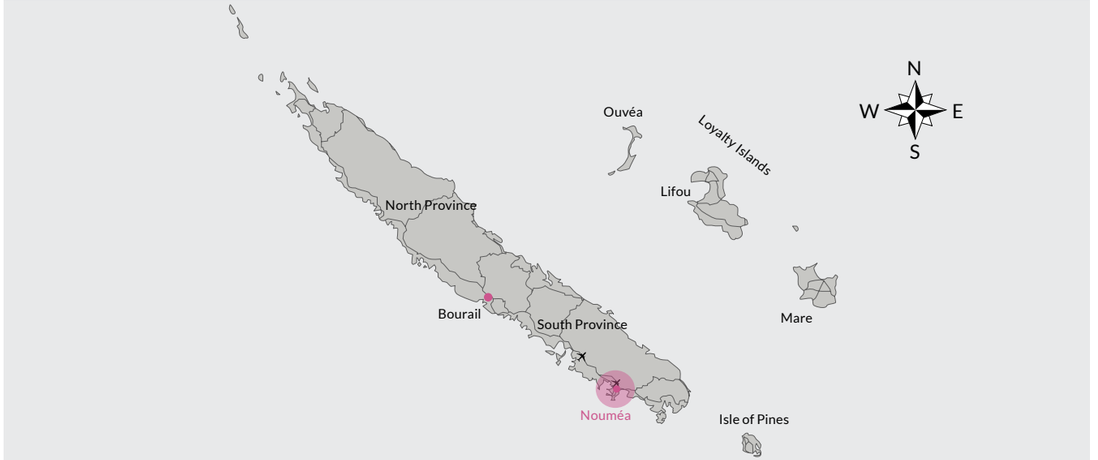

- French-inspired dining, shopping, and architecture
- Easy access to Anse Vata and Baie des Citrons beaches
- Day trips to Îlot Canard and Îlot Maître for snorkelling and sunbathing
- Cultural experiences at the Tjibaou Cultural Centre and local markets
- Boutique hotels and full-service resorts with lagoon views
- Great for short stays, city breaks, and romantic escapes

GRANDE TERRE

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

Grande Terre gives you space to breathe. We love the wide-open landscapes, the sense of freedom on the road, and the chance to connect with both nature and culture. Bourail, in particular, offers a perfect mix of luxury and adventure—ideal for travellers who want to unwind without losing their sense of discovery.

Grande Terre is New Caledonia's main island and a land of contrasts—where rugged mountain ranges meet wide open plains, and lush rainforests give way to golden beaches. It's a destination for travellers who love to explore, offering everything from hiking and diving to cultural encounters and scenic road trips.

On the west coast, Bourail is a standout region known for its relaxed pace, natural beauty, and access to the UNESCO-listed lagoon. It's also home to the Sheraton New Caledonia Deva Spa & Golf Resort, a luxurious retreat set between the ocean and the Deva Domain Nature Reserve. Here, guests can enjoy world-class golf, spa treatments, and outdoor adventures in a peaceful, unspoiled setting.

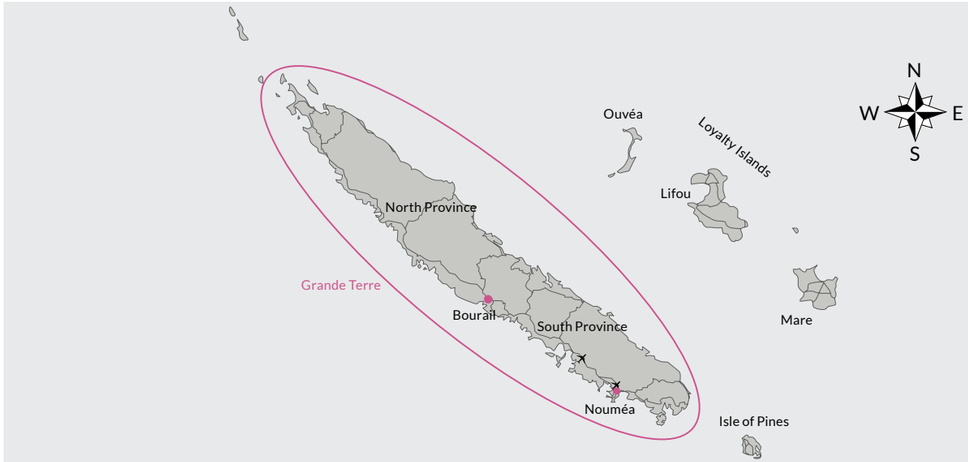

Whether you're kayaking through mangroves, hiking the Deva trails, or simply relaxing by the beach, Grande Terre offers a deeper, more immersive New Caledonian experience.

© NC Tourisme

HIGHLIGHTS

- Home to the Sheraton Deva Spa & Golf Resort, set between lagoon and forest
- Access to the UNESCO World Heritage-listed lagoon and reef
- Deva Domain Nature Reserve with hiking, biking, and birdwatching
- Scenic beaches like Roche Percée and Poé Beach
- Rich Kanak and colonial heritage in nearby villages
- Great for self-drive holidays and nature-based adventures
- Ideal for couples, families, and active travellers

© NC Tourisme

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Hire a car—Grande Terre is best explored at your own pace
- Visit the Deva Domain for hiking, mountain biking, and panoramic views
- Don't miss Roche Percée and Turtle Bay, two of the west coast's most scenic spots
- Pack for outdoor adventures—think hiking shoes, swimwear, and sun protection
- Stop at local markets and roadside stalls for fresh produce and local treats
- The Sheraton Deva is a destination in itself, perfect for a few days of relaxation and exploration

LOYALTY ISLANDS

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Loyalty Islands feel like a step back in time. We love the raw beauty, the warm hospitality of the local communities, and the chance to experience New Caledonia's cultural heart. It's a destination for those who value simplicity, authenticity, and meaningful travel.

The Loyalty Islands—Ouvéa, Lifou, and Maré—offer a more remote and culturally rich side of New Caledonia. These islands are known for their dramatic coastlines, hidden caves, and pristine beaches, all set against a backdrop of strong Kanak traditions and village life. With fewer visitors and a slower pace, the Loyalty Islands are ideal for travellers seeking a deeper connection to nature and culture.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Three distinct islands: Ouvéa, Lifou, and Maré
- Strong Kanak culture and traditional village life
- Dramatic cliffs, caves, and untouched beaches
- Excellent snorkelling and diving in pristine lagoons
- Ideal for slow travel and cultural immersion

© NC Tourisme

© NC Tourisme

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Each island has its own personality—Ouvéa for beaches, Lifou for culture, and Maré for nature
- Accommodation is limited, so book early and expect a more rustic experience
- Bring essentials, including cash, reef shoes, and sun protection
- Respect local customs, especially when visiting villages
- Snorkelling is excellent, particularly in Lifou and Ouvéa
- Travel light and slow—these islands are all about connection and calm

ISLE OF PINES

© NC Tourisme

WHY WE LOVE IT

The Isle of Pines is pure postcard perfection. We love the quiet beauty, the soft beaches, and the sense of stillness that comes with being somewhere truly special. It's the kind of place where you can completely switch off and reconnect with nature.

Just a short flight from Nouméa, the Isle of Pines is one of New Caledonia's most iconic destinations. Known for its towering native pines, white-sand beaches, and crystal-clear lagoons, it's a peaceful paradise perfect for couples and nature lovers. Whether you're snorkelling in Oro Bay's natural pool or exploring ancient Melanesian ruins, the island offers a serene and unforgettable escape.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering native pines and white-sand beaches
- Snorkelling in the natural pool at Oro Bay
- Peaceful, boutique resorts with beachfront access
- Rich cultural history and ancient ruins
- Ideal for couples, honeymooners, and nature lovers

© NC Tourisme

© NC Tourisme/ Hitomi Mutou

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Visit Oro Bay's natural pool—it's one of the most photographed spots in New Caledonia
- Bring reef shoes and snorkelling gear—the water is clear and full of marine life
- Try the local lobster, a regional specialty
- Book accommodation and transfers early, especially in peak season
- Pack light and plan to relax—this is slow travel at its best
