CRUISING BEYOND THE ORDINARY

© Star Clippers

With Star Clippers, you embark on an authentic and truly magical sailing voyage. There is never the feeling that time is running short, and no rigid schedules to rush your days or create stress.

You are free to choose how you spend your time on board—whether enjoying a full programme of daily activities or simply embracing moments of peaceful relaxation. Make the most of complimentary water sports and the inviting warm seas. Watch the bartender craft delightful cocktails in the Tropical Bar, and share stories from the day with newfound friends.

On deck, do not miss the unforgettable sail-away. Under the Captain's guidance, the crew expertly raises the towering, majestic sails while the music of Vangelis sets the scene, creating a moment that stays with you long after the journey ends.

A WORLD OF SAILING DESTINATIONS

Star Clippers sails to some of the world's most captivating destinations. Choose voyages of 3 to 14 nights through the Caribbean, Central America, the Western Mediterranean, Croatia and the Greek Islands. Calling at pristine ports that remain unspoiled and distinctive, each voyage promises an experience that is truly once in a lifetime.

SOFT ENTERTAINMENT

In many of the destinations we visit, local performers are invited on board to share an authentic taste of their music and arts. Each ship features a piano and a talented entertainer who can play favourite classics or the latest musical hits. Guests may also enjoy the easy camaraderie on board, take part in guest and crew talent shows, or dress up for special evenings such as Pirate Night or White Night. Activities may include mast climbing, sail raising, star gazing, ship navigation and photo tendering.

NAUTICAL EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

Call upon your sense of adventure and climb the mast to the Crow's Nest—almost 20 metres above the deck—for breathtaking panoramic views. Or unwind in the bowsprit at the bow of the ship, suspended above the ocean, with dolphins often swimming below in the Caribbean. Guests are invited to help haul the sails, learn knot tying and attend navigation classes rooted in Star Clippers' sailing traditions. These distinctive activities, combined with the relaxed and casual atmosphere on board, create an unforgettable sailing experience that keeps guests returning time and again.

FINE CUISINE

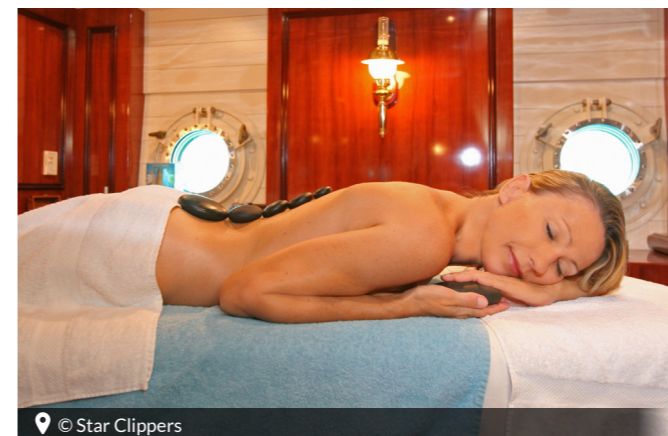

Begin the day with a continental breakfast of croissants and pastries, or enjoy a full breakfast with fresh fruit and eggs cooked to perfection. Lunch may be savoured in the dining room or enjoyed as a festive barbecue ashore. In the afternoon, a tempting selection of snacks awaits in the Tropical Bar to carry you through to dinner. Evenings require no formal attire—dinner is a feast designed to delight the senses. Each course from the nightly changing à la carte menu is carefully and professionally prepared. Open seating dining is available across all ships, allowing you to dine when it suits you best, whether with new friends, the Officers, or simply on your own. Casual elegance is welcomed day and night.

CARIBBEAN

You may think you know the Caribbean, but experiencing this beautiful region aboard a tall ship offers a completely fresh perspective. Standing on deck as the sails are raised and the sunset turns the sky from blue to gold is an experience unlike any other cruise – and one that stays with you long after the journey ends.

During the winter season, tall-ship sailings explore both iconic islands such as St Barts and Barbados, as well as quieter, less-visited destinations including Bequia and Nevis. Itineraries vary by ship, with sailings through the Leeward Islands or Treasure Islands from St Maarten, and other voyages departing Barbados to explore the Windward or Grenadine Islands. The Caribbean setting also brings opportunities to experience destinations rich in character and culture. Visits to places such as Martinique reveal a distinctive blend of French and Caribbean influences, while time ashore allows for relaxed exploration at each port.

No matter the itinerary, opportunities for immersion are woven throughout the journey. Snorkelling in the clear turquoise waters of Tobago Cays, swimming with rays in Antigua, or discovering UNESCO-listed sites such as Willemstad in Curaçao and Brimstone Hill Fortress in St Kitts all form part of the experience. Prefer a slower pace? Simply enjoy the view from deck as the ship sails past landmarks like the Pitons of St Lucia, or wander through the colourful streets of Caribbean islands steeped in history and charm.

MEDITERRANEAN

Let the wind carry you in the wake of these great explorers as you sail the Mediterranean - cradle of Western civilisation and historic home waters of the world's most celebrated seafarers. Travelling aboard a tall ship, with sails unfurled and the sea as the guiding force, brings this legacy vividly to life.

For centuries, the islands and ports of the Eastern Mediterranean were shaped by waves of invaders and traders from Phoenicia, Persia, Imperial Rome and Constantinople, followed by Crusader knights, Genoese mariners, Venetian merchants and the Ottoman Empire. Their legacy remains in weathered stone ruins, rich with myth and mystery.

Today, the sun-spangled seas bordering Greece, Turkey, Italy, Croatia and the Dalmatian Coast reveal a striking contrast - a yachtsman's paradise of forgotten islands, white-washed shores and dramatic cliffs crowned by ancient monasteries. Across the Mediterranean, natural beauty blends seamlessly with thousands of years of history, from Italy and Sicily to France, Spain and Portugal.

The Western Mediterranean is especially vivid, with sparkling capitals, medieval villages, sheltered coves and sun-lit beaches. The taste of fresh olive oil, the sound of laughter carried on warm sea breezes and the sight of yachts at anchor in picturesque harbours form part of everyday life here. Wherever you wander, the Mediterranean's enduring magic remains - a timeless blend of culture, history and tranquil seas that has captivated travellers for millennia.
