WHY WE LOVE IT

The Cook Islands have a way of making you feel instantly at home. We love the warm, welcoming locals, the laid-back lifestyle, and the sense of space and simplicity that's hard to find elsewhere. It's a place where you can snorkel in crystal-clear lagoons in the morning, browse local markets in the afternoon, and enjoy a beachfront barbecue at sunset. With no crowds, no chain hotels, and no stress, the Cook Islands offer a truly authentic island escape that's as relaxing as it is unforgettable.

Nestled in the heart of the South Pacific, the Cook Islands offer a warm, welcoming escape filled with natural beauty and rich Polynesian culture. With 15 islands scattered across a vast ocean expanse, the destination is best known for its two main gems—Rarotonga, the vibrant hub, and Aitutaki, often called one of the most beautiful lagoons in the world.

Rarotonga is a lush, mountainous island encircled by a turquoise lagoon and a coral reef, perfect for snorkelling, paddleboarding, and cycling around the coast. Its lively markets, beachside cafés, and friendly locals make it a great base for exploring island life. Just a short flight away, Aitutaki offers a slower pace, with powdery white-sand beaches, crystal-clear waters, and unforgettable lagoon cruises.

The Cook Islands are ideal for travellers seeking a relaxed, uncrowded holiday with a strong sense of community and culture. Whether you're enjoying a traditional island night, hiking through rainforest trails, or simply unwinding in a beachfront bungalow, the islands offer a perfect blend of adventure and serenity.

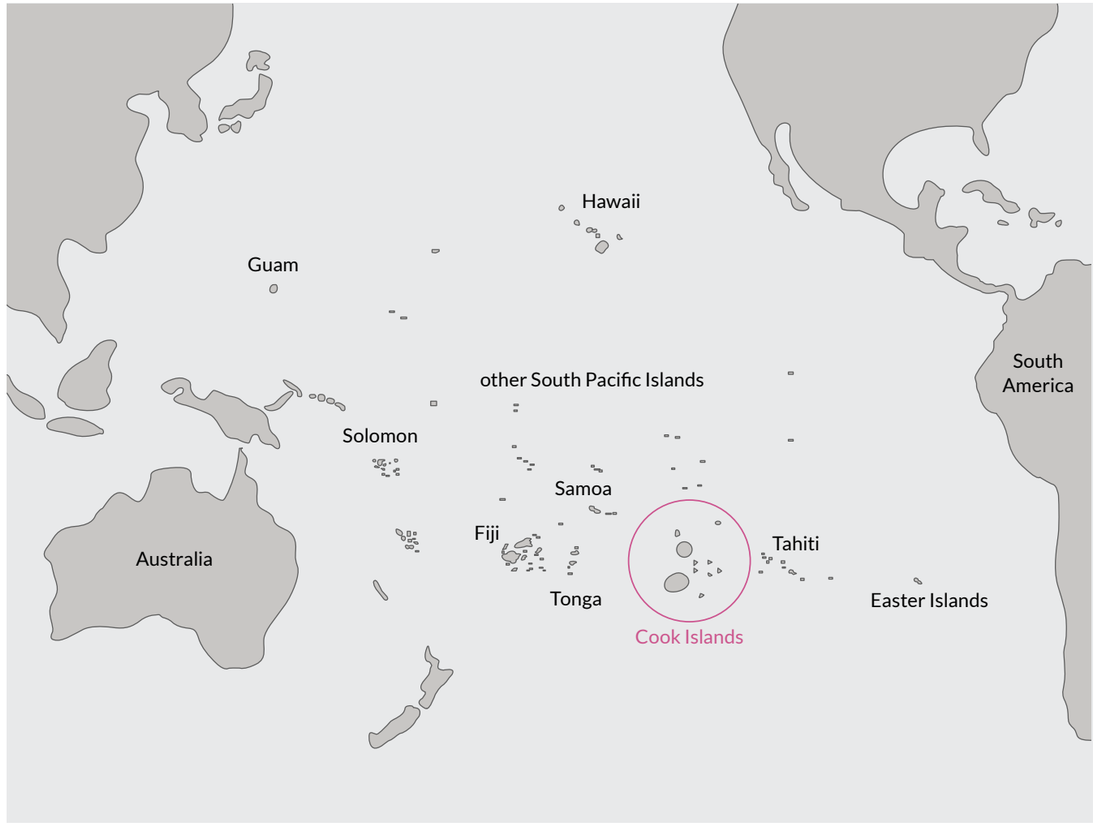

With no chain hotels and a focus on locally owned accommodation, the Cook Islands deliver an authentic experience that feels both personal and untouched. It's a destination where time slows down, and every moment is savoured.

WHY WE LOVE IT

Rarotonga has a charm that's hard to put into words. We love how easy it is to explore, how friendly the locals are, and how every beach feels like your own private paradise. It's a place where you can do as much or as little as you like—whether that's hiking to the Needle, snorkelling in the lagoon, or just enjoying a slow morning with a coffee and a view. It's the kind of island that makes you feel instantly at ease.

Rarotonga is the vibrant hub of the Cook Islands—a lush, volcanic island encircled by a turquoise lagoon and fringed with palm-lined beaches. It's where most travellers begin their journey, and it offers the perfect balance of natural beauty, cultural richness, and laid-back island life.

The island is small enough to explore in a day yet packed with experiences. You can snorkel straight off the beach, hike through rainforest trails to panoramic lookouts, or cycle the coastal road past local cafés, markets, and friendly villages. The Saturday Punanga Nui Market is a must-visit, showcasing local crafts, fresh produce, and live music.

Rarotonga is also home to a wide range of accommodation—from boutique beachfront resorts to self-contained villas—making it ideal for couples, families, and solo travellers alike. With no traffic lights, no high-rise buildings, and no rush, it's a place where time slows down and every moment is savoured.

Whether you're enjoying a traditional island night, sipping cocktails at sunset, or simply relaxing in a hammock, Rarotonga offers a warm, welcoming escape that feels both familiar and refreshingly different.

AITUTAKI

WHY WE LOVE IT

Aitutaki is pure magic. We love the calm, clear lagoon, the sense of space and stillness, and the way every moment feels like a postcard come to life. It's the kind of place where you can truly disconnect—from crowds, from schedules, and from stress. Whether you're cruising the lagoon, sipping cocktails at sunset, or simply soaking up the silence, Aitutaki is unforgettable.

Aitutaki is the jewel of the Cook Islands—a breathtakingly beautiful island surrounded by a turquoise lagoon so stunning it's often ranked among the most beautiful in the world. Just a short flight from Rarotonga, this peaceful paradise offers a slower pace, fewer crowds, and a deep sense of serenity.

The lagoon is the star attraction, with its crystal-clear waters, coral reefs, and tiny motu (islets) perfect for exploring by boat, kayak, or paddleboard. Lagoon cruises are a must-do, offering snorkelling, beach picnics, and unforgettable views of the island's natural beauty.

On land, Aitutaki is equally charming. The island is dotted with small villages, friendly locals, and boutique resorts that blend comfort with authenticity. Whether you're relaxing in a beachfront bungalow, enjoying fresh seafood, or watching the sunset from a quiet beach, Aitutaki invites you to slow down and savour every moment.

With its postcard-perfect scenery and warm hospitality, Aitutaki is ideal for honeymooners, couples, and anyone seeking a romantic or restorative escape in the South Pacific.

TIPS FROM THE TEAM

- Book a lagoon cruise early—it's the best way to explore the motu and snorkel in the clearest waters.
- Pack reef shoes and sun protection—you'll spend a lot of time in and around the water.
- Don't miss One Foot Island, one of the most photographed spots in the South Pacific. Don't forget to take your passport to receive a unique One Foot Island Stamp at the tiny post office (closed on Sundays)
- Aitutaki is quieter than Rarotonga, so book accommodation and activities in advance.
- Try fresh seafood at a local café or resort restaurant—the flavours are simple and delicious.
- Hire a scooter or bike to explore the island at your own pace. Taxi's are extremely limited so would recommend organizing car hire in advance if you want to explore the island by car
