Day 4

Moorea Raiatea

Raiatea, also known as "The Sacred Island," is situated just across the lagoon from Taha'a and shares the same barrier reef. According to legend, the two islands were once a single landmass until a conger eel possessed by the spirit of a princess separated them. Raiatea used to be the religious and cultural center of the Society Islands, with Taputapuātea on the southeast coast serving as the most important marae, where kings from neighboring islands would gather for significant ceremonies. The main town of Uturoa is reminiscent of a younger Papeete, with its quaint low-rise buildings. Raiatea is also home to the Fa'aroa, the only navigable river in the islands. Explore Polynesian history or climb Mount Temehani in search of the rare tiare apetahi flower, which grows exclusively here.
