Day 3

Strasbourg Waltenheim-sur-Zorn

After breakfast, the cruise passes the striking European Parliament building on the outskirts of Strasbourg before continuing through the Brumath Forest to the charming mooring at Waltenheim-sur-Zorn. In the afternoon, a scenic drive leads into the rolling Vosges hills along the Route des Vins d'Alsace, renowned for producing some of the region's finest wines. Here, a private tasting of Gewürztraminer, Pinot Noir and Riesling is hosted at Domaine Lissner, a long-established family-run winery. The day concludes with dinner ashore at a traditional Alsatian restaurant.

Overnight stay onboard Hotel Barge Panache in a Junior Suite.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Waltenheim-sur-Zorn Saverne

This morning the barge continues along the canal, offering excellent opportunities for walking or cycling, before reaching the enchanting town of Saverne, whose history stretches back over 2,000 years to the Gallo-Roman era. The barge moors at the foot of the Château de Rohan, often called the 'Versailles of Alsace'. A guided walking tour of Saverne is followed by a visit to Château Haut-Barr, where panoramic views await. Dinner is served on board.

Overnight stay onboard Hotel Barge Panache in a Junior Suite.

Saverne Lutzelbourg

This morning begins with a leisurely visit to Saverne's market before cruising to the picture-perfect village of Lutzelbourg, nestled among rolling hills and overlooked by the ruins of its medieval castle. In the afternoon, there is an excursion to the mountaintop town of La Petite Pierre, followed by a tour of the renowned René Lalique collection, showcasing more than 500 exquisite examples of Art Nouveau and Art Deco glass. Nearby Wingen-sur-Moder, a notable Second World War battleground, is also visited. Before dinner on board, aperitifs are served, accompanied by a tasting of traditional Alsatian Flammekueche prepared by the chef.

Overnight stay onboard Hotel Barge Panache in a Junior Suite.
