Itinerary

Day 1 Ypres → Fromelles → VC Corner → Messines → Passchendaele → Ypres

Pick up in Ypres at 9.00am and travel towards Fromelles where Australian troops saw their first action in Europe. You will see the Museum of the Battle of Fromelles explaining how the remains of 250 British and Australian soldiers were found, exhumed and buried.

Visit the only exclusively Australian Cemetery in France, VC Corner Cemetery, and the Australian Memorial Park. Stop at Rue Pétilion Cemetery where many Australians killed in July 1916 were laid to rest. Driving through Armentières and Ploegsteert towards Messines, see the Christmas Truce Memorial, the New Zealand Memorial, the Irish Tower, the 11th century crypt and the local visitor Centre.

After lunch, visit Hill 60, the Caterpillar Crater, the 1st Australian Tunnelling Company Memorial and some destroyed bunkers. Stand in Polygon Wood near The 5th Australian Division's Memorial where the dawn service happens on ANZAC Day, also see the new "Brothers in Arms" Memorial.

In Zonnebeke visit what is known as the best WW1 museum in Belgium, Memorial Museum Passchendaele 1917. Stand in Tyne Cot, the largest Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) cemetery in the world with 12,000 burials, and its Memorial to the Missing bearing the names of over 25,000 soldiers. See the village of Passchendaele.

Drive to Langemark to see the German Cemetery containing more than 45,000 burials and stand at Essex Farm where John McRae wrote the poem "In Flanders Fields".

In Ypres see the Menin Gate, the main square, the Cloth Hall, the Cathedral and enjoy some free time before attending the Last Post at the Menin Gate

Overnight stay at the New Regina Hotel in a Marketsquare view room.

🍴 Lunch

Day 2 Ypres → Bayernwald → Kemmel → Poperinge → Lijssenthoek → Ypres

Departing after breakfast at 9.00am, we drive to Bayernwald, a set of German second line trenches in the sector of Wijschate. The site consists of two mine galleries, a mine shaft, a trench system and five bunkers. It is accessed via a footpath which passes through the restored network of trenches.

Next, move on to Kemmel and stand at the Spanbroekmolen Crater, also known as the "Lone Tree Crater" and the "Pool of Peace", one of the remains of the Battle of Messines. Stop at the American Memorial of Kemmel and visit the Lettenberg Bunkers. Stand at the French Ossuary and the Angel on Kemmel Ridge.

After lunch, visit Talbot House in Poperinge, "The Every Man's Club", a quiet place where soldiers could go to have a cup of tea or relax in the garden. Then, see the old Death Cells in the Town Hall. A sobering reminder of fate faced by many so-called 'deserters' during the Great War.

Stop at Lijssenthoek, the location of a field hospital from 1915 until 1920, See the visitor centre and the cemetery containing 10,000 burials. See the grave of Nelly Spindler, a staff nurse buried with full military honours, and the only woman buried in this cemetery.

On the road back to Ypres, where your tour ends, we'll visit the Chinese Memorial.
