OPTIONAL EXTRAS

Captain Taina's Lagoon Underwater Treasures - Full day (Motu Lunch and transfers included)

Take advantage of this superb boat trip in the calm waters northwest of the island to observe green turtles, multicolored fish and other fascinating underwater species in their natural habitat, not forgetting the submerged tikis of Papetoai. Three snorkeling stops are scheduled, as well as a visit to Opunohu Bay - the birthplace of many legends - and a passage along the reef barrier. A tasty lunch with fresh fish and local products then awaits you on Captain Taina's lovely, sunny and entirely private motu or, weather permitting, at the base on the main island. Wherever you choose, a swim or sunbath will round off your day.

Shared ATV Guided Tour

Fun and comprehensive, these tours allow you to take full advantage of the beauty of Moorea's land, some parts of which are still inaccessible to standard vehicles. The lush vegetation and varied plantations, the rivers, the panoramic views. Get to grips with the Quad or SSV in around 10 minutes before the tour. These new-generation, fully automatic vehicles are specially designed for off-road use. Stable and comfortable for 2 passengers, they are easy to drive and go everywhere.

Hiking in the Lavatubes

Moderately difficult "Canyoning" hike visiting lava channels that were formed during the volcanic period when the island was born. You will explore the rocks and vaults that Mother Nature herself has carved out. When you come out of the lava tubes, follow the river bubbling with waterfalls and have a swim in the cool water. Lunch and equipment included (headlight, gloves and coverall).
