Discover the charm, history, and allure of Quebec City over four unforgettable days with this captivating city experience.

Highlights

- An excursion along the picturesque coast of Beaufort
- Visit the historic towering white spires of the Basilica of Sainte-Anne de-Beaufort, the Montmorency Falls, and the pastoral peace of Île d'Orléans
- Visit the iconic cobblestone square of Place Royale
- Learn about the vibrant history of Québec City in a complete, comprehensive tour experience
- See the magnificent colonial buildings of the Walled City

As the beating heart of Francophone society in Canada, Québec City represents the incredible melding of history, art and culture while also celebrating the global influences of the 21st century – a must-see destination for any international traveler! The fortified city of Old Québec tells the story of Canada's earliest days, complementing the many restaurants that delight diners with menus fusing local, First Nations and international cuisine in ways before never imagined. The city sits astride magnificent natural wonders, including the towering precipice of Montmorency Falls, and the surrounding pastoral landscapes dotted with magnificent cathedrals. Whether a short trip to get a taste of Quebecois life, or as part of a longer stay with additional nights, transfers or excursions, this package is the perfect addition to any Canadian holiday.

ITINERARY

Day 1

Québec City

After arriving in Quebec, transfer independently to your hotel for a three-night stay. As a very walkable city with a variety of restaurants and shoppes all in close proximity, the rest of the day is yours to explore the local area around your hotel.

Overnight in Québec City at Fairmont Le Château Frontenac

Day 2

Québec City

Today, the vibrant history of Quebec City is combined with the stunning natural landscapes just outside the city for a complete and comprehensive tour experience. Beginning with an in-depth tour of Old Quebec, including the pivotal battlefield of the Plains of Abraham, continue on to see the magnificent colonial buildings of the Walled City, the grand Fairmont Château Frontenac, and the iconic cobblestone square of Place Royale. Afterwards, embark on an excursion along the picturesque coast of Beaupré, en route to the towering white spires of the Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré. The tour also includes a visit to the spectacular Montmorency Falls and the pastoral peace of Île d'Orléans.

Québec City

Today is a time of independent exploration of the city and the surrounding area. A day on the expansive trails of Parc National de la Jacques-Cartier, or some a visit to walk above the rushing waters of Canyon Ste Anne is an unforgettable experience for the entire family. In the evening, visitors indulge themselves at one of the many excellent restaurants of the city. As a centre for gastronomic excellence and innovation, experience the perfect melting of French, British and Indigenous influences to create truly unique and delicious offers. Perhaps dive into the hearty French-Canadian and boreal menus, using local ingredients culled from the province's expansive agricultural lands.

Overnight in Québec City at Fairmont Le Château Frontenac

Day 4

Québec City

Today is your day of departure. Enjoy a final morning in Quebec City before transferring independently to the airport.
