From Varazdin, make your way to one of the most beautiful Croatian castles, Trakoscan, with a known history dating back to the 14th century. According to one legend, Trakošćan owes its name to a Thrace fort (arx Thacorum) that allegedly existed in the ancient times. Another legend says that it got its name after the Drachenstein knights who ruled this area in the early Middle Ages. Trakošćan is one of the rare objects in Croatia with fully preserved construction, historically tied to the architectural frame and life of its owners- the Drašković family. Enjoy traditional lunch in Vuglec Breg, located between beautifull green hills ,in the heart of Zagorje.
