ITINERARY

Day 1

Winnipeg

After arriving in Winnipeg transfer independently to your hotel. After checking in, head to an evening meet and greet held by an Interpretive Guide.

Overnight in a Winnipeg hotel.

Day 2 Winnipeg Churchill

Enjoy your breakfast at the hotel and catch the early morning flight to Churchill. Upon arriving, head out for a Churchill and area tour which comprises a guided bus tour of local and historical points of interest surrounding Churchill, including the Polar Bear Holding Facility and Inukshuk.

After a delicious lunch at a locally-owned restaurant, head over to the Itsanitaq Museum, which contains one of Canada's finest collections of Inuit carvings, kayaks, and artifacts dating from pre-Dorset, Dorset, Thule, and modern Inuit times.

This evening, escape the lights of town for the trip's first aurora borealis-viewing opportunity! Tonight, travel to a modern-style yurt tucked away in the boreal forest. The illuminated yurt and surrounding treetops can make for excellent northern lights photography.

Overnight in a Churchill hotel.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3 Churchill

This morning, get to visit Polar Bears International House, where you will receive a short talk from a Polar Bears International Ambassador who teaches about polar bears around the world, polar bear research, climate change and more. Tour the Interpretive Centre and learn how to support polar bear conservation efforts! After lunch, feel the exhilaration of an afternoon interpretive snowshoeing adventure through Churchill's boreal forest.

This evening, journey by the official Tundra Buggy across the frozen Churchill River to Dan's Diner and experience regional cuisine in a pop-up restaurant, complete with skylights and panoramic windows for the best northern lights-viewing opportunities. After dining beneath the northern lights, step outside and relax with fellow travellers. Eventually, head back to town and enjoy the rest of the evening.

Day 4

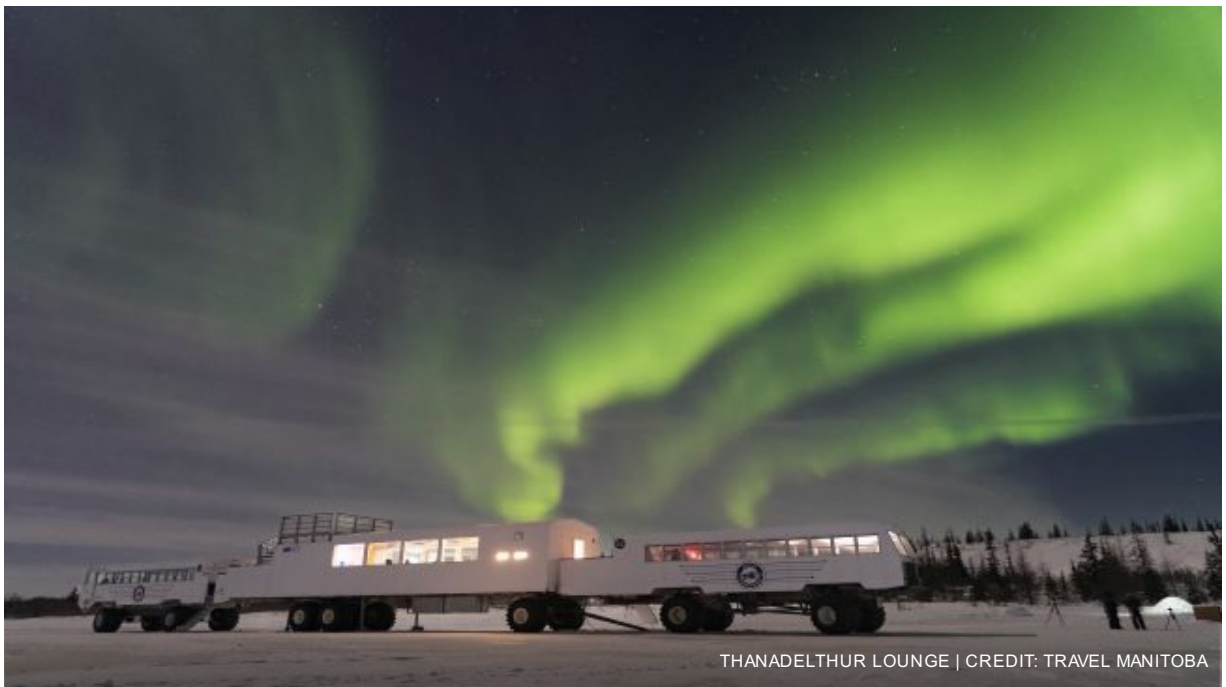

Churchill

In the morning, grab a quick breakfast from the lobby hotel before meeting the group. Today, you will be going on a dog sledding excursion! Hosted by a local resident and dog sledding expert, learn about Métis culture and the history of dog sledding in northern Canada.

This evening, take part in another special northern lights experience! From the town of Churchill, travel by Tundra Buggy across the frozen Churchill River, only this time it's to Thanadelthur Lounge. Here, you can view the northern lights from inside by peering out through the panoramic windows or you can climb onto the rooftop observation deck for an unobstructed view. Spend the late night hours viewing the incredible images of the northern lights as they streak across the sky.
