Witness true wilderness on this three-day Rocky Mountaineer rail journey. Explore the vibrant mountain mecca of Whistler. See hidden lakes and canyons few others get to see. Relax in comfort as you move through seemingly impassable terrain by the Rocky Mountaineer train. Revel in the history of the gold rush. Marvel at Mount Robson, the Canadian Rockies' highest peak.

Your journey begins in Vancouver, where you board the luxurious Rocky Mountaineer train. You'll wind your way along Horseshoe Bay and the scenic Fjords of Howe Sound. As you pass Squamish, you'll leave the ocean behind and find yourself amid the majestic Coast Mountains.

Continuing north from Whistler, you'll follow the Fraser River Valley through some of the most dramatic and contrasting landscapes throughout Canada. The historic rail route will take you through historic gold-flecked canyons, before traversing through the wilds of Northern BC and on to the mountain town of Jasper.

Day 3

Rocky Mountaineer: Quesnel – Jasper

Your journey continues eastwards today to the majestic Canadian Rockies and Jasper National Park. From Quesnel the Rocky Mountaineer follows the Fraser River north to the town of Prince George, then travels east through the forests of northern British Columbia, home to plentiful wildlife, including a large population of moose. Entering the Rocky Mountain Trench you are surrounded to the north by the steeply rising Rocky Mountains and to the south by the Cariboo Mountains. Continue climbing past Mount Robson, at 3,954 metres (12,972 feet) the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, and through the Yellowhead Pass into the province of Alberta. Your rail journey ends today on arrival in Jasper.
