Day 3

Caudebec-en-Caux Rouen

Spend your morning exploring the picturesque city of Caudebec-en-Caux on your own.

Later in the afternoon, enjoy a delightful river cruise as you navigate towards Rouen.

Estimated Arrival time 11:00 pm

Time seems to slip away rapidly in the bustling city of Rouen. However, one cannot help but be captivated by history when encountering the remarkable 'Big Clock', which dates back 600 years. This iconic astronomical clock, showcasing only an hour hand, stands as one of the oldest of its kind in the world.

Day 4

Rouen

It is time to visit the city of Rouen in northwestern France.

Rouen captivates its visitors with its Gothic masterpiece, the Rouen Cathedral, and a medieval Old Town that is filled with half-timbered houses. The city has a rich history, particularly as the site of Joan of Arc's trial, which is vividly portrayed at the Historial Jeanne d'Arc. Museums such as the Musée des Beaux-Arts showcase the cultural depth of Rouen. The Gros-Horloge, an illuminated clock, adds a touch of magic to the evenings. Along the Seine, the city provides a charming setting for exploring French history, culture, and cuisine.

Day 5

Rouen Les Andelys Vernon

Leaving Rouen and continuing your sail on a picturesque river cruise towards Les Andelys, you will reach the tranquil town at 8:00 AM. Nestled along the Seine, Les Andelys is renowned for its medieval castle, Château Gaillard, which offers a glimpse into history with its captivating ruins. Imagine Richard the Lionheart safeguarding against the French advance from this idyllic vantage point.

Continuing your journey, you will arrive in Vernon at 2:30 PM, which is a highlight of your Seine cruise.

Take the opportunity to explore Claude Monet's house and garden in Giverny, a sanctuary for art enthusiasts. The lush garden resembles an impressionist painting, showcasing a mesmerizing lily pond, which is the subject of one of the world's most valuable paintings. Enjoy an up-close view of this masterpiece, creating an enchanting experience.
