Your tour of the city includes the Old Town, where traditional homes and religious buildings line the narrow streets.

In a small library here, guests will be privileged to see one of Islam's most sacred relics – the world's oldest Quran. This is followed by a visit to the Railway Museum and the Museum of Applied Arts.

Later this afternoon board the private train, the Golden Eagle, and settle into well-appointed private ensuite cabins. Tonight, enjoy a Welcome Dinner onboard.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Kokand Rishtan Margilan, Uzbekistan

Kokand, one of the most ancient cities in Uzbekistan, served as a crucial trading post on the Silk Road. Highlights of the tour today include the majestic Palace of Khudayar Khan, often called the Pearl of Kokand, and the Jami Mosque, the city's most impressive mosque.

Later, travel by coach to Rishtan, home to Uzbekistan's world-famous ceramic industry. Here, uncover the secrets of this ancient craft from renowned local artisan Rustam Usmanov. You'll witness the magic of pottery in action during a close-up demonstration by a master craftsman and gain insight into the meticulous artistry involved in decorating these exquisite ceramics.

The final stop in the Fergana Valley is a visit to the ancient city of Margilan, renowned for its silk production, which many consider the finest in Central Asia. Here, you will visit a local family who have been producing silk for generations using traditional methods. You will explore the whole process of making silk from the mulberry trees used to feed the silkworms to hand weaving the colourful ikat fabric on traditional looms.

PALACE OF KHUDAYAR KHAN

Shahrizabz, Uzbekistan

Believed to be the birthplace of Amir Timur, the military prodigy who modelled himself on Genghis Khan, today you will visit the UNESCO-honoured statue of Amir Timur and his Ak-Saray Palace. This majestic palace in Shahrizabz took over a quarter of a century to build, and was originally decorated with colourful, highly detailed mosaic but also included delicate calligraphic inscriptions from the Qur'an. Amid the decorative facing, there is an inscription showing the date 798 (1395 – 1396 AD) which was when the building was completed.

You will explore each beautiful hall decorated with breathtaking chandeliers, while learning about each of the artists and designers that worked incredibly hard to build and decorate this majestic palace.

STATUE OF ISMAILI SOMONI IN DASHUNABE

Bukhara, Uzbekistan

Bukhara is quite simply outstanding. Like Khiva, UNESCO sponsored the renovation of much of the city for its 2,500th anniversary in 1999. The highlight of this wonderful tour is a visit to The Ark, a fortified residence of the Emirs of Bukhara – the despotic and ruthless leaders who ruled until Soviet times. The touring programme will also transport guests to the grandeur of Poi-Kalyan Square, home to the iconic Kalyan Mosque, a living relic of traditional Islamic design. Stroll through the mosque's large pillar-domed galleries and deeply recessed niches, and you will be transported to a bygone era.

Immerse yourself in the lively pulse of the city as you explore the bustling Trading Domes of Bukhara and gather at Lyabi-Hauz Square, a vibrant social hub cocooned by a pool and embraced by the soothing shade of mulberry trees and local tea rooms. Later, travel out of the city to experience the Emir's enchantingly named 'Palace of the Moon and Stars'.

This evening, weather permitting, you will enjoy a barbecue on the station platform before the train departs.

Overnight aboard the Golden Eagle.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Merv, Turkmenistan

From the city of Mary, transfer to the ancient and mainly unrestored remains of Merv. Once an important stopping point on the Silk Road, it claims to have briefly been the largest city in the world during the 12th century. The demise of Merv came in 1794, after the Emir of Bukhara destroyed the dam which the population depended on for its water.

MERV, TURKMENISTAN

Day 8

Ashgabat & Darvaza Gas Crater, Turkmenistan

Ashgabat, the capital of Turkmenistan, situated between the Kara Kum desert and the Kopet Dag mountain range, Ashgabat is a relatively modern city built upon the ruins of the Silk Road city of Konjikala. The Soviet city was largely rebuilt after the devastating earthquake of 1948.

The city's extravagant fountains, golden domes and towering modern buildings appear strangely incongruous in this desert setting. Highlights on this visit include the National Museum and the chance to visit the local Circus.

The Golden Eagle makes a brief scheduled stop at Ichoguz, where you have the option to leave the train and make a short journey to Darvaza's famous burning gas crater, a spectacular sight best seen at night. Located in the middle of the Kara Kum desert where the area is rich in natural gas, the 70-metre wide crater is known by the locals as the 'Door to Hell' and has been burning for over 40 years. A unique experience that is not to be missed.

Overnight aboard the Golden Eagle.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

ASHGABAT, TURKMENISTAN

Khiva, Uzbekistan

Today, travel to the ancient city of Khiva, founded 2,500 years ago. As one of the Silk Road's most important trading posts and now a World Heritage Site, it lies at the crossroads of the routes between Mongolia, Russia, China and Iran. A truly magnificent sight to behold, it rises out of the desert to reveal a wealth of impressive architecture. Stepping back in time, discover its impressive mosques, madrassas, bazaars and minarets within Khiva's ancient walls.

Overnight aboard the Golden Eagle.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Samarkand, Uzbekistan

Just the mention of Samarkand instantly conjures up evocative images of the Silk Road, more so than any other town. Samarkand's stunning architecture hints at its former status as one of the most important cities in Asia. Noted for its architectural remains from the 14th to the 17th century when it flourished as the fabled capital of the Mongol empire of Timur and his successors.

Today, visit some of its most significant sites including Registan Square, the refined elegance of the beautifully proportioned Bibi Khanum Mosque and the Ulag Beg observatory, one of the earliest Islamic astronomical observatories built in 1428.

Prepare for an unforgettable evening in Samarkand that will leave an indelible mark on your memory. As the sun sets and night descends upon this ancient city, you will be whisked away to the illuminated Registan Square, where an extraordinary spectacle unfolds. From your prime front-row seats, you'll be treated to a dazzling light show that weaves the rich tapestry of Samarkand's history and significance.

REGISTAN SQUARE, SAMARKAND

Day 11 Samarkand, Uzbekistan

Day 12 Lake Issyk-kul & Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan

This morning, you will visit Lake Issyk-Kul. Measuring over 170km in length and 70km width at its widest point, it is celebrated as the second largest alpine lake in the world. Its name meaning 'warm lake' references to the fact it has never frozen – a reflection of its extreme depth, mineral content and geothermic activity in the area. Marvel at the majestic snow-capped mountains surrounding the water and prepare to learn more about local lifestyles and crafts with a Yurt building demonstration.

Following this, you will be treated to breathtaking flight demonstration of Eagle Hunting, a 4,000-year-old art. You will learn the story of eagle hunting, the characteristics of the Golden Eagle and the fascinating details of this Kyrgyz nomadic tradition. You will then enjoy a traditional Kyrgyz folklore show from local performers.

Originally a caravan rest stop serving the travellers that came through the area along the Great Silk Road, Kyrgyzstan's capital city, Bishkek, is the location of our afternoon sightseeing. Here, visit the Ala-Too Square, built 1984 to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the Kirghiz Soviet Socialist Republic in Kyrgyzstan and a city tour of the local parks, rich in Soviet history, including statues of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels and the Memorial for the Red Guards.

Day 13 Almaty, Kazakhstan

Almaty is the largest city in Kazakhstan and is notable for its wide tree-lined boulevards. Surrounded by the majesty of the Tien Shan Mountains, this beautiful city derives its name from 'alma' meaning 'apple'. Just a short distance from the city, apple orchards thrive in abundance.
