Breakfast, Dinner

VINEYARDS IN THE LANGHE REGION

Day 4 Langhe region

After a rich buffet breakfast, departure to admire the twentieth-century Novello Castle from the outside, highly towering over vineyards and woods, a secure visual stronghold of this part of the Langa. The redundant terracotta facade, the crenellated towers, the profusion of warheads and arches, the large staircase in white marble.

Additionally, you can add an optional tasting tour of Honey with lunch in a local restaurant. In the afternoon, return to your hotel and the remainder of the day is a t leisure.

Overnight stay in Santa Vittoria D'Alba at Albergo All'Agenzia or similar.

Breakfast

LANGHE REGION

Day 5 Langhe region

After your buffet breakfast, departure for a tour of a renowned Ciobot in La Morra, where guests will have the opportunity to visit the company and sample the various types of wine produced. While in the vicinity of La Morra, or perhaps along the route connecting Alba and Neive, one should not miss the impressive giant benches that have become a notable tourist attraction in Piedmont, particularly in the Langhe region. These large, vividly colored benches, designed by American designer Chris Bangle, are situated in picturesque locations throughout the Langhe landscape, away from the usual tourist paths, providing a delightful means to organize an extraordinary tour of the Langhe—a treasure hunt that evokes the joys of childhood.

The afternoon is free for guests to relish the leisurely pace of nature or to partake in one of the optional experiences (extra cost).

Overnight stay in Santa Vittoria D'Alba at Albergo All'Agenzia or similar.

Breakfast

Day 6 Langhe region Milan

Breakfast at the hotel, followed by departure for Milan.

En route, there will be a stop in Santo Stefano Belbo to visit the birthplace of Cesare Pavese, the renowned Italian writer. In the afternoon, we will arrive in the Italian capital of fashion and design, a bridge-city linking it with Northern Europe. The Gothic cathedral and the convent of Santa Maria delle Grazie, which hosts Leonardo da Vinci's fresco of the Last Supper, exemplify the artistic and cultural heritage of the city, while its broad avenues, contemporary buildings, and futuristic architectural structures link it to the present.
