This itinerary explores Northern Italy's scenic landscapes and rich heritage, beginning in Venice and journeying through the Dolomites. First, travellers visit Bassano del Grappa, a charming village along the Brenta River known for its iconic Ponte Vecchio bridge and famous grappa distilleries. The trip then moves to Trento, a vibrant city with a storied past, from Roman rule to Austro-Hungarian influence.

Next, the route leads to Ortisei in Val Gardena, famous for its traditional wood carvings, and the Alpe di Siusi plateau, where stunning Dolomite vistas await. Merano offers a tranquil spa experience, with botanical gardens and Art Nouveau architecture, while Bolzano surprises with its unique blend of Northern European and Mediterranean charm.

The journey continues along the South Tyrolean Wine Road to Caldaro Lake, featuring a wine tasting and light lunch. Guests will then discover the enchanting Braies and Misurina lakes, set against breathtaking alpine backdrops. The trip concludes in Cortina d'Ampezzo, the "Queen of the Dolomites," followed by a day in Venice, where they explore iconic landmarks such as St. Mark's Square, the Rialto Bridge, and the Grand Canal.

ITINERARY

Day 1

Venice Bassano del Grappa Trento

Depart from Venice to Bassano del Grappa, a picturesque village overlooking the Brenta River, steeped in history and renowned for its grappa.

Start with a visit to the iconic "Ponte degli Alpini," a historic bridge that played a key role in the city's WWII defence. Take a scenic walk along the Brenta River to the "tobacco road" and discover the charming Villa Angarano Bianchi Michiel, a UNESCO-listed Palladian residence.

Enjoy a grappa tasting before continuing to Trento, the capital of Trentino, known for its vibrant history, from Celtic roots to Roman and Austro-Hungarian influences. End with free time to relax and acclimatise.

Overnight stay in Trento at NH Trento or similar.

Day 2

Trento Ortisei & Alpe di Siusi Trento

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for Ortisei, a village where a simple walk leads to a discovery of its charm. Along with the nearby villages of SS. Cristina and Selva, Ortisei is nestled in Val Gardena, one of Italy's most beautiful Dolomite valleys. Famous for its artistic wooden sculptures, Ortisei has been home to expert carvers for generations, producing globally known wood works, sculptures, and objects. The entire town centre maintains a perfect balance of history, architecture, landscape, and local economy. Ortisei's pedestrian area, often regarded as the most beautiful in the Dolomites, connects St. Ulrico's Church with St. Antony's Church, offering a perfect starting point for scenic hikes, including the tour of Castelrotto hill or the "Mushroom Path" in Laranza.

After exploring, we'll take a lift to the "Alpe di Siusi" plateau, offering panoramic views of the stunning surrounding landscape before returning to Trento.

Trento Merano & Bolzano Trento

After breakfast at the hotel, depart for a tour of Merano, the spa town on the Passirio River, known for its large parks, green walks, and botanical gardens. The historic centre, with its medieval arcades and elegant Art Nouveau buildings, offers a refined and welcoming atmosphere. The whitewashed peaks of the glaciers provide a natural backdrop of rare beauty. Don't miss a visit to the wonderful botanical gardens of Trauttmansdorff Castle.

Continue to Bolzano, a city that blends Northern European and Mediterranean influences, evident in its historical and artistic landmarks and authentic cuisine. For centuries, Bolzano has been a trade hub between Italy and Germany. Today, it is a cosmopolitan city that is lively, modern, and refined. With a perfect balance of living spaces and green areas, there are numerous walks for both casual and avid hikers. Three cable cars provide access to the surrounding highlands, where nature's beauty shines. Return to Trento.
