Day 2

Whistler

Begin your day with the thrilling Peak 2 Peak Gondola ride, a world-record-breaking experience that takes you between Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains, offering breathtaking views of peaks, glaciers, and alpine forests.

In the afternoon, set off on the Jeep Mountain Top Salmon Bake Tour. An unforgettable adventure! The original Whistler salmon bake, known by reputation as Whistler's best adventure dining tour. You'll enjoy an incredible 4x4 experience of climbing in a Jeep Rubicon, 6,000ft up Blackcomb Mountain to the Horstman Glacier and ending up at the Crystal Hut with the most spectacular patio in Whistler. Relax and enjoy the sweet sounds of live entertainment as your chef prepares a Pacific Coast classic including cedar-planked, maple glazed wild BC Salmon, local vegetables, fresh salads, and a delicious dessert. Treat yourself to a unique dining experience like no other!

Whistler

Today, dive into the traditions and history of the Squamish and Lil'wat Nations at the Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre, where exhibits, cultural artefacts, and timeless stories bring their heritage to life.

Afterwards, savour local flavours on a Whistler Guided Lunch Tour, combining delicious cuisine with a guided exploration of Whistler Village. There is no better way to spend an afternoon in Whistler than exploring the eclectic culinary scene as guests enjoy a delicious multi-course lunch while visiting some of the best local lunch spots. There will be four amazing stops in one delightful and casual afternoon. Each restaurant is a Whistler gem. Your tour guide adds local knowledge, wine education, Whistler history & restaurant stories throughout the tour.

As night falls, be transported to a magical realm with the Vallea Lumina Night Walk, an immersive experience of light, art, and nature set amidst Whistler's enchanting forests under the stars. This 1.5 km trail through an old growth forest will take visitors of all ages on an hour-long multimedia night walk in pursuit of hidden wonders.
