ITINERARY

Day 1

Sydney The Hawkesbury

Your Golden West adventure begins at Sydney's Central Station. Once aboard, you can unwind in the lounge carriage or settle into your cabin as the train journeys towards the stunning Hawkesbury River. Here, you'll disembark for your first off-train experience: a lunch cruise with the renowned 'Riverboat Postman'. Revel in the breathtaking scenery of the lower Hawkesbury River as mail and essentials are delivered to the remote river-access-only communities upriver from Brooklyn.

Upon rejoining the train, you'll be treated to some of Australia's most spectacular views. Watch as the train curves along the tracks, offering glimpses of its full length, while the route hugs the water's edge at Mullet Creek. The scenic waterside journey continues through the Woy Woy Tunnel and alongside Brisbane Water. Skirting around Newcastle, the train then reaches Maitland in the Hunter Valley, where it will be stabled for the night at Paterson.

Today, you'll explore the Hunter Valley with a choice of three unique off-train experiences:

Option 1: Lunch at Twine Restaurant, Hunter Valley

Established in 2013, Twine Hunter Valley showcases seasonal local produce, exquisite dining options, and premium wines, all paired with stunning views and impeccable service. Overlooking some of the region's oldest vineyards, this charming restaurant is also the perfect setting for a Muscat tasting experience.

Optional Upgrade: Hunter Valley Helicopter Experience (limited availability)

Enhance your visit with an unforgettable helicopter flight for an additional cost. Marvel at breathtaking aerial views of the Hunter region before joining lunch.

Option 2: Margan Wines

Enjoy a guided behind-the-scenes tour to learn how sustainably farmed, single-vineyard wines are crafted from vine to glass. Conclude your visit with a wine tasting and a delightful lunch at this award-winning, family-owned winery and restaurant.

After your chosen experience, you'll rejoin the coach for the journey back to Branxton Station, where you'll board the train.
