Skagway

As you travel to Skagway, you'll discover a town with a fascinating history. In just one year, from 1896 to 1897, this remote settlement along the Inside Passage transformed from a handful of tents into a bustling city of 20,000 gold seekers. Today, you'll visit in search of a different kind of treasure – to step back in time along Skagway's charming boardwalk, lined with buildings that capture the spirit of the Gold Rush era.

Day 10

Whittier Anchorage

Although just 60 miles from Anchorage, Whittier feels a world apart. This small, secluded town, accessible only by land through the two-mile-long Anton Anderson Memorial Tunnel, is nestled between towering mountain peaks and the Passage Canal. Founded as a military base during World War II, Whittier is now your gateway to the remarkable Prince William Sound. Its rugged coastlines and waterways are home to a variety of wildlife, including bears, mountain goats, Dall sheep, whales, sea lions, otters, and more. On disembarkation day, unleash your inner explorer with outdoor activities or enjoy a scenic boat tour through the sound's breathtaking beauty.

After disembarking from Norwegian Jade, a coach transfer from the Whittier Cruise Terminal to Anchorage is provided, followed by the rest of the day at leisure. Anchorage, nestled between the Chugach Mountains and Cook Inlet, offers a vibrant mix of cultural attractions, stunning natural scenery, and opportunities for outdoor adventure.

Overnight in Anchorage at Clarion Suites Hotel (or similar)

Day 11 Anchorage Seward | Alaska Railroad

Transfer to Anchorage train station independently this morning. Depart on a 4-hour scenic train journey along Cook Inlet and into the glacier filled Kenai Mountains. Rest of day is at leisure in Seward. Visit the Alaska SeaLife Centre, take a kayaking tour or a trip to Exit Glacier.

Overnight in Seward at Seward Windsong Lodge (or similar)

Day 12 Seward

Today, enjoy a 6-hour cruise of Kenai Fjords National Park. The park boasts abundant wildlife, alpine and tidewater glaciers, and breathtaking scenery. Watch for Stellar Sea Lions, seals, puffins, eagles, and whales. You will stop in front of the glacier to hear it moving and possibly see ice fall into the ocean.

Overnight in Seward at Seward Windsong Lodge (or similar)

Lunch

Day 13 Seward Talkeetna

Depart mid-morning on your scheduled coach transfer to Talkeetna, with a 90-minute stop in Anchorage providing time to purchase lunch. You will arrive in Talkeetna in the afternoon, and the evening is yours to enjoy at your leisure.

Overnight in Talkeetna at Talkeetna Alaskan Lodge

Day 14 Talkeetna Denali

Spend most of the day at leisure in Talkeetna, where you can explore the charming downtown with its unique shops and local eateries, or visit the Talkeetna Historical Society Museum for a glimpse into the town's history. Adventure seekers can enjoy a flightseeing tour to Denali or hike nearby trails, while those seeking relaxation can stroll along the Susitna River or unwind with a locally brewed beer at a riverside brewery. In the afternoon, depart on your scheduled coach transfer to Denali.

Overnight in Denali at Denali Bluffs Hotel (or similar)

Day 15 Denali National Park

Discover Denali National Park on a narrated bus tour. This tour is approx. 4-6 hours long and takes you approx. 30 to 43 miles into the park (depending on weather and road conditions). Enjoy the pristine wilderness, and look for wildlife, such as bears, caribou, and moose, as well as views of Mt. Denali.

Overnight in Denali at Denali Bluffs Hotel (or similar)

Day 16 Denali Anchorage | Alaska Railroad

Enjoy a leisurely morning before hopping on the Alaska Railroad train to Anchorage. When you arrive, take your time to transfer to your hotel and get ready to explore the city at your own pace.

Overnight in Anchorage at Clarion Suites Hotel (or similar)

Day 17 Anchorage

Depending on your departure time, you might have free time for some souvenir shopping or additional excursions. Transfer on your own to the airport.
