Day 2 Vancouver

Start the day with a guided tasting tour of Granville Island, Canada's second most-visited destination. Savour a variety of sweet and savoury bites while delving into the market's behind-the-scenes stories, cultural heritage, and passionate culinary artisans.

Later in the afternoon, begin your Bowen Island Dinner & Sites Boat Tour. Suit up in a comfortable marine survival suit (fits right over your dinner attire) and board a high-speed boat for a scenic narrated cruise through False Creek and English Bay. After placing your dinner order, enjoy the thrilling crossing to Bowen Island. Upon arrival, dine at a local waterfront restaurant and explore quaint shops before cruising back to Vancouver under the evening sky.

Day 4 Vancouver

Enjoy a relaxed 12 km guided ride through Stanley Park along dedicated, car-free bike paths suitable for all skill levels. Discover the park's temperate rainforest, learn about the history of the Coastal First Nations and their totem poles, and uncover stories from the park's 125-year history. Take in spectacular views of the Vancouver skyline, North Shore Mountains, Lions Gate Bridge, English Bay and the West End. Continue along False Creek to admire Vancouver's public art and modern green spaces while gaining a deeper appreciation of the city's natural and cultural heritage.
