Day 16 Banff

Begin your day immersed in the natural beauty and rich history of Banff National Park. Journey through some of the most scenic and iconic locations in the Canadian Rockies, including the majestic Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel, the thunderous Bow Falls, and the panoramic viewpoints at Surprise Corner and the Hoodoos. Along the way, learn about the fascinating stories that shaped the region and keep an eye out for wildlife roaming freely in their natural habitat. Pause at the peaceful shores of Lake Minnewanka to savour a warm drink.

In the afternoon, continue your adventure to two of the most breathtaking alpine lakes in the world. Stand in awe at Lake Louise, where the turquoise waters reflect the towering peaks and the Victoria Glacier. Stroll along the lakeshore and take in the grandeur of the surrounding scenery. Then make your way to Moraine Lake, set in the stunning Valley of the Ten Peaks. A short walk up the Rockpile reveals the famous viewpoint once featured on the Canadian twenty-dollar bill, an unforgettable photo opportunity. Throughout the day, engaging stories of early explorers and mountaineers bring these landscapes to life, adding a deeper connection to the wonders around you. This full-day journey offers an unforgettable glimpse into the heart of the Rockies, blending iconic sights, natural splendour, and captivating storytelling.
