TRAVEL STYLE

Independent Holiday Packages

Escape to the edge of Algonquin Provincial Park for an off-the-grid lodge adventure where moose sightings, star-studded skies, and campfire cookouts are all part of the experience.

Highlights

- Swim, fish, sauna, or simply relax with a book by the peaceful shores of Surprise Lake
- Stay at the secluded Algonquin Log Cabin with home-cooked meals and warm hospitality
- Bonfire cookouts, starlit canoeing, and storytelling under the northern sky
- Sunrise and sunset paddles to spot moose, beavers, and birds in their natural habitat
- Trek to Lookout Bluff for panoramic views over Algonquin's sparkling lakes and forests

Journey into the heart of Ontario's wilderness on this lodge-based escape to Algonquin Park's western boundary. Designed for adventurers of all levels, this immersive experience combines outdoor exploration with rustic comfort at the charming Algonquin Log Cabin on Surprise Lake. Enjoy guided canoe excursions through misty waterways in search of moose, hike forested trails to stunning lookouts, and relax by the stone fireplace after a hearty home-cooked meal. Learn traditional paddling techniques, unwind in the lakeside sauna, and connect with the rhythms of nature. Whether you're stargazing from a voyageur canoe or cooking over an open flame, every moment is crafted to celebrate Canada's great outdoors with a hint of comfort and plenty of soul.

The Log Cabin Adventure is an authentic nature-based experience truly off the beaten track. The Log Cabin typically accommodates 12 people with 6 bedrooms (with two single beds in each) that share two washrooms. A massive fireplace runs up through the centre. There is no electricity, and nighttime lighting is created with candles and kerosene lanterns adding to the classic, rustic Canadian charm.

Delicious home cooked meals are served at the huge harvest table. You'll love the beer bread, hearty soups and fresh salads. Relax on the sunset deck or on the couch in front of a massive, stone fireplace.
