Peace of Mind, Every Step of the Way

This holiday package is carefully designed by our team to give you complete Peace of Mind, with access to trusted local partners and expert support at your destination.

Leading Industry-Accredited Canada Specialist

Canada Travel is a leading, industry-accredited Canada specialist, combining genuine destination expertise with the strength and stability of an established travel group – so you can book with total confidence.

This 9-day self-drive holiday invites you to journey along the Infinite Coast, where the Pacific Ocean sets the rhythm for travel. From the fjord-like waterways of the Sunshine Coast to the wild, rugged shores of Vancouver Island, every stage of the trip reveals a different side of British Columbia's dramatic landscapes.

Travel by road and ferry through old-growth forests, island-studded straits, and coastal towns shaped by the tides. Along the way, immerse yourself in experiences that connect you to the land and its people - whether it's encountering whales breaching in the Salish Sea, watching black bears forage along Tofino's shoreline, or walking with Indigenous guides who share their stories and deep-rooted traditions.

In Victoria, choose how you engage with the city's vibrant character, from exploring the lush Butchart Gardens to tasting regional flavours on a guided food tour or enjoying High Tea at the iconic Fairmont Empress. With flexible Freedom of Choice excursions, comfortable accommodation, and the independence of the open road, this itinerary blends coastal discovery, cultural connection, and breathtaking wilderness into one unforgettable journey along Canada's Pacific edge.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Vancouver Sunshine Coast

Depart Vancouver for Horseshoe Bay and take a 45-minute BC Ferries sailing to the Sunshine Coast. This scenic cruise passes through fjord-like waters surrounded by mountains blanketed with virgin forests and glaciated peaks. Upon arrival in Langdale, disembark the ferry and drive along a leisurely and stunningly scenic route through forests and coastal fishing villages to your overnight accommodation at the West Coast Wilderness Resort. Dinner is included today.

Day 2 Sunshine Coast

Spend the day surrounded by the natural beauty of Canada's Pacific Coast. The Sunshine Coast is known for its peaceful inlets, forest trails, rugged shoreline and relaxed coastal communities, making it an ideal place to enjoy outdoor adventure or simply slow down and take in the scenery. Depending on your interests, the day can be spent exploring the coast, walking through the forest, watching for wildlife, or enjoying the resort's remote wilderness setting. Breakfast and dinner are included today.

Day 3 Sunshine Coast Campbell River

Today, continue north along the Sunshine Coast to Earls Cove for the 50-minute BC Ferries crossing to Saltery Bay. From here, follow the coastal route to Powell River and board another BC Ferries service across the Strait of Georgia to Vancouver Island. As you travel, enjoy changing views of sheltered bays, forested coastline and island-dotted waters. Upon arrival on Vancouver Island, continue north to Campbell River, historically known as the “Salmon Capital of the World.” Set between Strathcona Provincial Park and the Coast Mountains, Campbell River offers a dramatic coastal setting where cruise ships pass through Discovery Passage on their journey toward Alaska. Breakfast is included today.

Day 4 Campbell River

You can personalise your day by choosing from one of two excursions.

Overnight in Campbell River at Coast Discovery Inn (or similar)

Freedom of Choice Options

- Whale Watching Cruise:

  Set out on a 4-hour marine wildlife adventure from Campbell River through the Salish Sea, Discovery Passage and the scenic Discovery Islands. Travelling with an experienced naturalist captain, choose between a comfortable covered boat or an open-air Zodiac as you search for humpback whales, orcas, dolphins, porpoises, seals, sea lions, bald eagles and other coastal wildlife in their natural habitat.

OR

- Bald Eagle Feeding Frenzy Tour | 20 May - 31 Jul:

  Witness one of Vancouver Island’s most dramatic seasonal wildlife spectacles on a 4-hour Zodiac excursion from Campbell River. Timed around powerful spring and early summer tidal currents near the Discovery Islands, this tour takes you safely within view of hundreds of bald eagles as they dive for hake at the ocean’s surface, with seals, sea lions and coastal seabirds often joining the feeding frenzy.

Day 5 Campbell River Tofino/Ucluelet

Today, travel southwest across Vancouver Island toward Tofino and Ucluelet on the rugged West Coast. En route, stop at Cathedral Grove to walk among towering 800-year-old Douglas fir and cedar trees, then continue to Sproat Lake, known for its historic Mars Water Bombers. The scenery becomes increasingly dramatic as you travel through Sutton Pass and the island's mountain interior before descending toward the Pacific Coast, where rainforest, surf beaches and ocean scenery create one of Canada's most spectacular coastal settings.

Day 6 Tofino

Today, you can personalise your day by choosing from one of two excursions.

Overnight in Tofino at Water's Edge Shoreside Suites (or similar)

Freedom of Choice Options

- Coastal Bear Watch Cruise:

  Set out by Zodiac along the sheltered inlets and rocky shoreline of Clayoquot Sound in search of black bears foraging at low tide. From the comfort and safety of the vessel, watch for bears turning over stones in search of rock crab, framed by misty rainforest, tidal flats and the wild beauty of Vancouver Island's Pacific Coast.

OR

- Whale Watching Cruise:

  Cruise through the pristine waters of Clayoquot Sound, where forested islands, ocean swells and snow-capped mountain backdrops create a remarkable setting for marine wildlife viewing. Depending on the season, you may encounter grey whales, humpback whales, sea lions, seabirds and bald eagles soaring above the shoreline.

Day 7 Tofino/Ucluelet Victoria

Leave the wave-washed beaches and rainforest trails of the West Coast behind as you travel back across Vancouver Island toward Victoria. The journey takes you from rugged Pacific scenery to rolling forests, coastal communities and the island's gentler southern landscapes. En route, stop in Chemainus, known for its large outdoor murals, and Duncan, the "City of Totems." If time permits, visit the Quw'utsun' Heritage Village for insight into the traditions, stories and artistry of the northwest coast people. Continue south to Victoria, British Columbia's elegant capital city, set beside the sparkling Inner Harbour.

Day 8 Victoria

Enjoy a personalised experience by picking one of four unique excursions today.

Overnight in Victoria at Inn at Laurel Point

Freedom of Choice Options

- Butchart Gardens Admission:

  Explore the world-famous Butchart Gardens, a National Historic Site of Canada and one of the most beautiful garden estates in the country. Wander through 22 hectares/55 acres of floral displays, landscaped pathways, sunken gardens and peaceful viewpoints spread across the 53-hectare/130-acre estate.

OR

- Eat like a Canadian Food Tour:

  Discover Victoria through its flavours on a guided culinary walking tour. Sample local ingredients, historic dishes and modern Canadian favourites while exploring the Inner Harbour and nearby neighbourhoods. Along the way, meet the chefs, makers and local food experts who help make Victoria one of Canada's most enjoyable small-city dining destinations.

OR

- Whale Watch Cruise:

  Head out onto the Salish Sea for a thrilling 3.5-hour whale watching cruise from Victoria. Travel aboard a covered or open vessel in search of orcas, humpback whales, sea lions, porpoises and seabirds. Hydrophones may be used to bring the underwater world to life, adding another dimension to this remarkable marine experience.

OR

- High Tea at the Fairmont Empress Hotel:

  Enjoy the timeless tradition of Afternoon Tea at the Fairmont Empress, one of Victoria's most iconic landmarks. Settle into an elegant setting overlooking the Inner Harbour and savour fine tea, delicate finger sandwiches, pastries and freshly baked scones in a setting that reflects the city's historic charm.
