ITINERARY

Day 1

Singapore

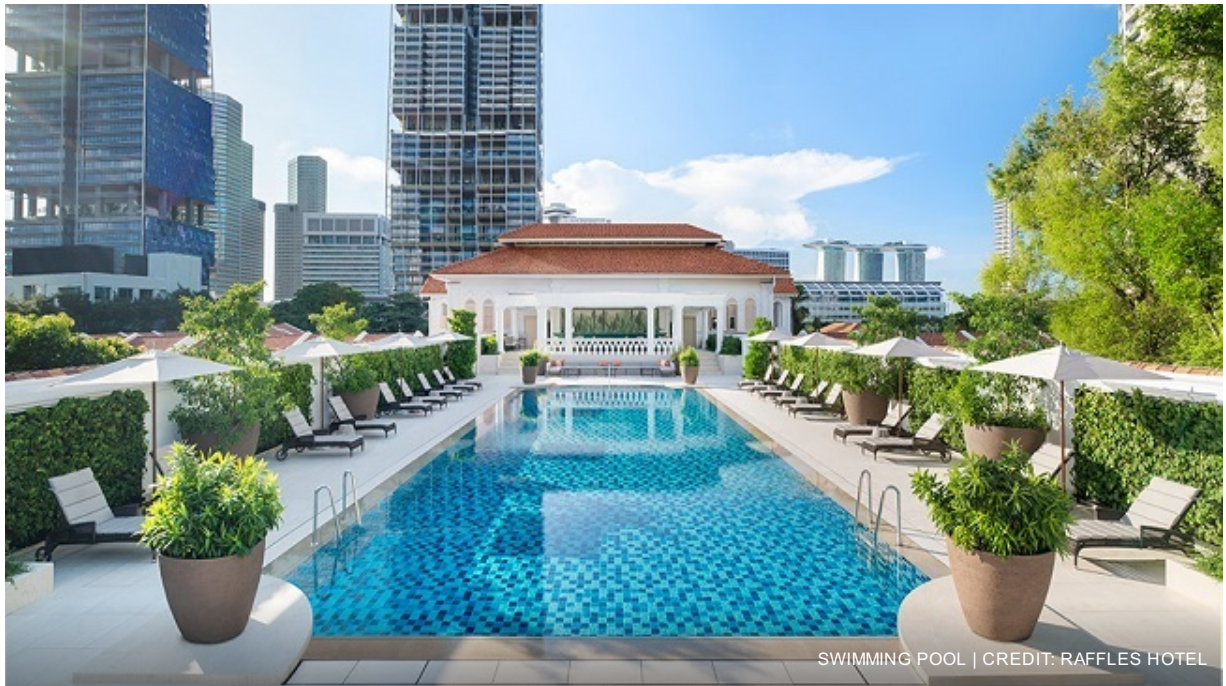

Your adventure begins with an overnight stay at the iconic Raffles Hotel, the famous birthplace of the Singapore Sling often frequented hub by Somerset Maugham and Noel Coward among others.

Check into your luxurious suite and later make your way to the East India Room for a private reception.

Prepare for the adventure ahead with an exclusive five-minute film premiere starring Britain's Ray Winstone, on behalf of Save Wild Tigers.

Day 2

Gemas

Step onto the vivid green and gold carriages of the Eastern & Oriental Express at Woodlands Station, Singapore.

Your air-conditioned cabin awaits, a sanctuary of polished cherrywood panelling, vibrant Thai silks and Malaysian embroidery. Meanwhile, the train travels through the wild, green landscapes of Malaysia, whisking you ever deeper through tangled jungle. Soak up the vistas as your steward serves an exquisite afternoon tea in your cabin. Soon, evening falls and it's time to dress for dinner in the Restaurant Car.

Indulge in a feast crafted by the train's acclaimed chef André Chiang, followed by onboard entertainment with your nightcap.

VIEWS FROM THE TRAIN

Day 3

Taman Negara

Early this morning, you arrive at Merapoh Station. After breakfast, step off the train to embark on one of three extraordinary excursions.

Taman Negara National Park was formed 130 million years ago, making it one of the oldest tropical rainforests in the world. Venture into the forest to discover the home of this critically endangered tiger and the efforts to safeguard its future. Alternatively, join a nature photographer and conservationist for a wild and wonderful immersion or discover the otherworldly allure of the rainforest's magnificent caves. Meet local villagers and gain a wealth of insight from dedicated experts before returning to the train for lunch.

During lunch and a leisurely afternoon, enjoy the views as the train travels down the jungle line past rice paddies, palm trees and rural Malaysian villages. In the evening, relax over a delicious dinner, followed by a lively evening with local entertainment in the Piano Bar Car.

TAMAN NEGARA

Penang

Enjoy breakfast on board, then step off the train for the crossing to Penang*. Here you'll visit two of the most historic buildings in the heart of George Town with its UNESCO Heritage status. Enjoy a ride in a traditional trishaw to the iconic Cheah Kongsai Temple. Closed to the general public, you will be met by guides and enjoy an exclusive tour of this stunning temple. Following your visit, your trishaw experience will continue with a short journey to the iconic 'Cheong Fatt Tze' (The Blue Mansion) building.

At the Blue Mansion, you will have the opportunity to meet the current owner and conservator for a personal insight into the building's history. Experience a traditional Malaysian indigo batik display and a demonstration into the delicate process of creating and applying the unique designs to fabrics. This visit will also provide an opportunity to view some of the stunning images from the 'Eye on the Tiger' photographic exhibition from London's Royal Albert Hall and a chance to meet the curator.

Rejoin the train to celebrate your last night on board. Following lunch, a car transfer has been arranged to take you to the local port town of Kuala Perlis for a boat journey to the mystical tropical island of Langkawi. Upon arriving in Langkawi, a car transfer will take you to The Datai Langkawi, one of Asia's most awarded resorts. Check into your luxury accommodation and enjoy the rest of the evening at your leisure. Dinner will be at your own expense.

For those preferring not to visit Penang, you will have the option to stay on board the train and enjoy a wonderful leisurely Champagne breakfast on board.*

Overnight at The Datai Langkawi Resort.

Breakfast, Lunch

The Datai, Langkawi

Set in a 10-million-year-old rainforest, the resort offers a serene wellness haven right on Datai Bay, an idyllic beach named one of the top 10 in the world by National Geographic. Spend the day at leisure and enjoy dinner at a restaurant of your choice.

Overnight at The Datai Langkawi Resort.

Breakfast

Day 6

The Datai, Langkawi

Continue enjoying the delights of The Datai Langkawi at whim. Spot dusky langurs, tokay geckos and great hornbills in the rainforest, stroll down a private footpath to the white-sand beach or perhaps enjoy a Malay treatment at The Spa. In the evening, join in for a final night of celebration. Sip cocktails in a magical beachside setting before sitting down to an intimate gala dinner. With the sun setting over the Andaman Sea as your backdrop, it's a truly spellbinding finale to your journey.
