Escape to Ratua Private Island — an eco-luxury sanctuary where heritage, nature, and barefoot island living come beautifully together.

Highlights

- Enjoy rare seclusion with only a handful of guests sharing 146 acres of untouched nature.
- Savour fresh, organic cuisine crafted by Chef RJ, showcasing modern tropical flavours and the best of Vanuatu's local produce.
- Stay in a charming Courtyard Room — a beautifully restored two-bedroom teak villa built around a peaceful private courtyard, with exclusive access to the Fish Village's over-water lounge offering serene bay views and frequent sea-turtle sightings.
- Indulge in healing spa rituals or explore warm turquoise waters by snorkelling, kayaking, paddle boarding, or horseback riding in the sea.

Ratua Private Island Resort is Vanuatu's hidden paradise — a 146-acre eco-luxury retreat offering authentic island living for only 32 guests. Once a sacred tribal gathering place, Ratua preserves its natural beauty and heritage through handcrafted teak villas, organic farm-to-table dining, and unforgettable ocean experiences. Whether you're snorkelling pristine reefs, indulging in over-water spa rituals, or relaxing in your private villa, Ratua invites you to slow down, reconnect, and embrace island life at nature's pace.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Airport Ratua Island Resort

Arrive at Espiritu Santo's Pekoa Airport (SON), where you will be met and transferred to Luganville Wharf for your boat ride to Ratua Island Resort & Spa. Upon arrival, check in to your Courtyard Room — a beautifully restored space crafted from 200-year-old teak, centred around a peaceful enclosed courtyard. Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure as you settle into the island's serene, eco-luxury atmosphere.

Overnight stay at Ratua Island Resort in a Courtyard Room.

Day 2-5 Ratua Island Resort

Spend your days embracing the slow, natural rhythm of Ratua Island. Relax on pristine beaches, swim in crystal-clear waters, or wander through lush tropical gardens. The resort offers a range of optional activities, including snorkelling, kayaking, horse riding, village tours, blue hole excursions, and rejuvenating over-water spa treatments. Enjoy wholesome, locally inspired meals and soak in the calm, barefoot luxury that makes Ratua Island truly unique.
