Leading Industry-Accredited Canada Specialist

Canada Travel is a leading, industry-accredited Canada specialist, combining genuine destination expertise with the strength and stability of an established travel group – so you can book with total confidence.

Begin your Yukon winter journey with an overnight stay in Whitehorse, providing time to settle in before an evening excursion to Aurora Village. Travel beyond the city lights to experience the magic of the Northern Lights from heated viewing areas, offering comfort as you watch the aurora dance across the night sky.

Following your Whitehorse stay, continue south to the tranquil wilderness of Southern Lakes Resort, beautifully set on a quiet arm of Tagish Lake and surrounded by boreal forest. Enjoy three nights in private, cosy log cabins that showcase the serenity of Yukon's winter backcountry. Traditional in style with modern comforts, each spacious cabin offers a warm and welcoming retreat with stunning lake and forest views.

Step directly from your cabin into a winter wonderland, with a range of optional activities available to enhance your stay. Choose from snowmobiling across frozen lakes, traditional dogsledding through snow-covered forest trails, or gentle snowshoeing at your own pace. With experienced local guides on hand, exploring the pristine landscapes of the Southern Lakes region is both accessible and unforgettable before returning to the comfort and tranquillity of the lodge.

Day 2 Whitehorse Southern Lakes Resort

You will be met at the hotel and transferred to the beautiful Southern Lakes Resort on the shores of Tagish Lake. On the way to your lodge-based adventure, your guide will point out some of the region's main attractions. At the resort, you can settle in and enjoy the stunning scenery over dinner at the lodge. In the evening, you can try your luck at witnessing one of the North's most sought-after natural phenomena: the Aurora Borealis.

Day 3 Southern Lakes Resort

Start your day with a hearty breakfast, prepared fresh each morning by the lodge chef. You'll have time to get familiar with the resort before heading out for snowshoeing, or you can choose one of the day tours available from the lodge. If your sense of adventure beckons, you can meet the eager huskies, who will take you along trails across the vast landscape surrounding Tagish Lake, a true gem in Yukon's winter wonderland, during a breathtaking snowmobiling tour. After this thrilling experience, you can relax with a hot drink or enjoy the lodge sauna. In the evening, dinner will be served at the lodge.

Day 5 Southern Lakes Resort Whitehorse

Relax this morning over breakfast before saying goodbye to the Lodge. Late morning we will bring you back to Whitehorse.

ACCOMMODATION

Edgewater Hotel

Yukon

With roots reaching back to the days of the Klondike Gold Rush, the Edgewater Hotel has long welcomed travellers to Whitehorse, set gracefully along the banks of the majestic Yukon River. Fresh from an extensive renovation, this historic landmark now features 33 modern guestrooms, each designed with comfort in mind and enhanced with thoughtful touches such as complimentary turn-down service. Its enviable location on the Yukon River waterfront, right in the heart of downtown Whitehorse, places guests at the centre of the city's charm and character.

Southern Lakes Resort

Whitehorse

The Southern Lakes Resort is the ideal place to unwind a few days to start or conclude your journey through the North. This lakeside restaurant offers homemade lake burgers as it is for juicy, perfectly grilled steaks or specialty dishes from our Chef with Swiss roots. Traditional log cabins with a modern touch – you'll feel right at home in our spacious cabins. Not to mention the view – ah, the view! Every morning, you discover something new, a different light, the sun shining through the clouds, mist rising from the lake, or a squirrel running across your balcony.
