ACCOMMODATION

COMO Le Beauvallon

Grimaud

COMO Le Beauvallon's location stands apart, with some of the best views and access to the Gulf of Saint-Tropez on the entire Cote d'Azur. The main hotel commands a hillside position in a private ten acre estate of palms, pines and rolling lawns. These grounds flow down to COMO Le Beauvallon's bayside pool, restaurant and beach club. Yacht tenders can be moored directly in front of the property, which will keep tables in constant demand at the new beach club restaurant, Beauvallon Sur Mer. Hotel guests wishing to explore other pockets of this Riviera location can slip into a speedboat from COMO Le Beauvallon's private jetty and enjoy a complimentary, eight-minute ride to the fishing village of Saint-Tropez. A second COMO speedboat is also available to take hotel guests to the famous beaches of Ramatuelle and Pampelonne. But few will want to leave the hotel pool, which glimmers like a mermaid's scales in silvery blue and green tiles — a stylish sanctuary that embodies the refined luxury of the French Riviera. It sits in harmony with another highlight of COMO Le Beauvallon's bayside gardens: the 2002 Serpentine Gallery Summer Pavilion. Designed by Pritzker Prize–winning architect Toyo Ito, the installation was meticulously relocated to its new home in the South of France, piece by piece. Set against the sea, Ito's masterpiece appears suspended between sky, water, and light — an emblem of poetic modernism, and a striking backdrop to private events, including weddings.
